A note on our sick: John Brasee is now at home and welcomes visits from his many friends.

Charlie Jenkins, founder of Jenkins Florests and longtime supplier of special occasion flowers for St. Pat's, died Friday evening just three weeks after his wife, Dorothy.

We remember also Father Francis Bartnikowski, Pastor of Assumption in Grafton, whose funeral was Thursday. May they all be at peace with their loving God.

The next Baptismal Class will be on Sunday, February 4th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Conference Room. Parents wishing to have a child receive this sacrament in the coming months should both participate in this class.

Many formal certificates for kids baptised over the past months are still in the sacristy: Given, Jasinski, Frigeri, Cantu, Jordan, Bryner, Ternes, Ulman, Shinsky.

Are WE Christ's light to our world? That's our calling, just like John, Peter & Patrick!

This being the second Sunday of the month, a 2nd collection will be taken for our friends in Gallup, New Mexico. Bishop Pelotte writes how pleased he is with our December gift to this "poorest diocese in the country." He welcomes letters from our children to Native American children in their schools--pen pals.

Envelopes for the second collection are in the bulletin stand drawer, if you wish to use one. These special envelopes will be in the next bi-monthly packets.

PRAYER

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go.

—Abraham Lincoln

On loaves and fishes

The young pastor began his sermon, "I have taken for my text the words, 'And they fed the five men with 5,000 loaves of bread and 2,000 fishes.'"

At this obvious misquotation, an old parishioner said audibly, "That's no miracle – I could do that myself."

The embarrassed pastor said nothing, but the next Sunday he announced the same text. This time, however, he got it right. He waited a moment and then, leaning over the pulpit and looking at the parishioner, asked, "And could you do that, too, Mr. Bailey?" "Of course I could," Bailey replied. "And just how would you do it?" the pastor asked. "With the leftovers from last Sunday," Bailey replied.

A true friend

The friend who can be silent in a moment of despair or confusion, who can stay with us in our hour of grief and bereavement, who can tolerate not knowing, not curing, not healing and face with us the reality of our powerlessness – that is the friend who cares.

—Henri Nouwen

First things first

When a child gets up at four o'clock in the morning to deliver papers, people say he is a go-getter. If the church should ask that same child to do some work for the Lord, they would say, "That's asking too much of the child." If a woman spends eight hours away from her home working in a factory or working in her garden, she is called an energetic wife. If, however, she is willing to do the same thing for the Lord, they say, "Religion has gone to her head." If one ties himself down making payments of $100.00 each week for some item of personal enjoyment, he pays willingly. But if that same person places that much in the offering plate, many people would say he is crazy. This is a crazy world indeed, where first things come last and last things come first.

Super Bowl seating

As you're watching the Super Bowl, consider this: "Is it I, Lord?" How people complain when the worship service exceeds one hour! It is hard to believe these are some of the same people who will sit for hours on hard bleachers without backs to watch a ball game, or who will applaud for multiple encores at a musical concert. The contrast in our attitudes shouts to high heaven that we, too, need to come to know what it means to worship and serve the living God.

Anointing of the Sick

At all Masses next weekend we invite our sick and elderly to receive this marvelously efficacious sacrament. A prudent and reasonable judgment is sufficient to determine the seriousness of an illness. Through the prayers and faith of both the person being anointed and of the Church, the Lord grants spiritual strengthening, forgiveness of sins, and physical health should that be necessary for the sick person's spiritual wellbeing.

And yet, God has a plan for the world that "eye has not has prepared for those who love Him." Our happiness rests in seeking God & God's loving plan in every step we take. Is the desire of your heart the same as the desire of God's heart?

"You are the temple of God. Wherever you find yourself, as husband or wife, as parent, as priestly servant leader, as teen, or as friend, you are living in God's presence. In that holy place where you are, everything you say and do becomes an act of worship. True worship goes the extra mile, offers no resistance to injury, loves the enemy and prays for one's persecutors." Dio. notes.

"We owe fidelity to those we choose and, beyond them, to others we do not choose. It is we who have been chosen to go out of our way for them." Faithful for Life. U.S. Bishops.

Because last year's Ash Wednesday community gathering here was such a fitting, Spirit-filled entrance into Lent, the Wellington Area Clergy Association invites us to join our neighbors in receiving ashes this Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

On four TUESDAYS of Lent, beginning February 27th, Father William Padavick of Sacred Heart in Oberlin will give a four part series entitled "The Church: Where Is She?" The talks will begin at 7:30 p.m. in our church

Stations of the Cross will be on Wednesday, also at 7:30 p.m., beginning next Wednesday.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat and also days of fast, that is limited to a single full meal.

The teaching of the Holy Father on the seriousness of Lenten obligations may be simply paraphrased: the obligation to do penance is a serious one; the obligation to observe as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified is also serious.... People should seek to do more rather than less. Fast and abstinence on the days prescribed should be considered a minimal response to the Lord's call to penance and conversion.

P.S.R. Notes: parents, this Wednesday, February 21st, is another early dismissal date for the Wellington schools. Since this day is Ash Wednesday, we hope you will make every attempt to have your children attend P.S.R. as usual--4:00 to 5:10 p.m. Linda Heyde.

Today we congratulate our second graders as they take a big step in their preparation for First Holy Communion. This afternoon at 2:30 p.m. they experience the loving forgiveness of God and the Church in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

P.S.R. Note: Sunday's video for grades 7--12 is: Sexuality: A Powerful Drive. Parents welcome to view at 9:40 a.m.

Your response to the Ash Wednesday Community Service was just grand. I can't help but to believe that this is what the good Lord wants of us, to celebrate the many beliefs we hold in common. Isn't this the only way we build real community! Thanks for affirming the positive.

PROMISE, a contemporary gospel choir, will present a concert at the Congregational Church here in Wellington this Sunday at 7:00 p.m. Free will offering.

Adam and Eve were tempted in a garden; Jesus was tempted in the desert. We, too, are tempted in both the gardens and the desert places in our lives. Temptation is part of every human life; it is an occasion to make good choices. It helps us to see the need of being fed by the Word of God, of trusting in his faithfulness, of adoring Him alone. May God's Word, trust, adoration be ours!

Lenten Schedule

That each of us may become the person God created us to be, we need to allow ourselves to grow in mind and spirit. These Lenten Services can help us on this journey in life.

Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. in church, we begin Fr. William Padavick's four part series on "The Church: Where Is She?" This first talk centers on the Church and the Council.

Wednesday, 7:30 p.m. in church, STATIONS OF THE CROSS.

We look forward to Bishop Donald Pelotte's arrival this Friday afternoon to begin his three day visit with us. Bishop Pelotte was born in Maine, of French and Indian heritage. He prepared for the priesthood in Cleveland and was ordained a member of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers. He was superior of that society when in 1986 he was consecrated Bishop of Gallup in 1986. (Bishop's brother is terminally ill in Maine, thus, we understand the visit could be delayed. We remember his family in our prayers.)

Meetings with Bishop Pelotte: Friday, 8:00 p.m., the Finance Council

Saturday, 10:00 a.m., the Pastoral Council; 6:30 p.m., P.S.R. Staff dinner.

Sunday, with grades 7--12 during regular P.S.R. time.

And after each Mass you are welcome to meet with Bp. Pelotte in Church.

We are very pleased with the response of our area merchants to taking ads for the Notre Dame Concert program. Because of this, the committee has produced a very attractive 28 page full size booklet, free to all concert goers. Now, please, please, can't you spare $5 to buy a ticket so you can hear this great band. Only 166 have been sold in this whole village. Shame on us!

Leave everything? Abraham was 75 years old when God asked him and Sarah to leave all and start over again. All they had was a promise of a blessing. Every vocation is an invitation to risk everything, to trust God's promise, and to be transfigured. "Listen to him!" Where is God inviting you to journey this Lent?

"We've got to get back to heavy-duty fasting," Bp. K. Untener of Saginaw, Michigan, said in his Lenten message. "We fast," he said, "to shake awake our spirit, to see some things we hadn't noticed. Fasting means we try death on for size. Trying death on for size isn't at all morose. It is liberating, exhilarating, for it is death above all that we fear. To look it in the eye and be able to deal with it is worth a zillion dollars. Then we can live our life really, not artificially, and can have a deep down peace. Fasting helps us get down to the things we really want to think about, but are afraid to.

Our Bp. Pilla said, "we might do well to fast from all that seeks to strangle God's life breath within us--all manner of violence, negligence and addiction; all manner of hurt, harm and bigotry. We might do well to fast from the rhetoric of our times that stereotypes all the poor as shiftless and promiscuous and all the rich as unprincipled and uncaring. This may be the penance called for by our times."

((That's right, no pancake breakfast Easter Sunday.))

The Easter Triduum. "Easter is three days. The celebration of the Passover of the Lord is not some sort of historical re-enactment which finds us in the Upper Room on Thursday, at the foot of the cross on Friday afternoon and on Saturday at the tomb. If it is not the Risen Lord who calls us together on Good Friday, then our celebration is not truly Christian. From the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday until and including Easter Sunday we celebrate one Christ, once dead and now alive in glory for ever. Easter is three days, one liturgy, a festival in honor of the God who raised up Jesus from the dead." S. Andrew Missal.

Extra Holy Week Schedules and envelopes are available on the bulletin stands.

Kindly return the Holy Week booklets to the end of your pew at the conclusion of each Mass or service these next few days.

A holiday for atheists

An atheist complained to a friend because Christians had their special holidays, such as Christmas and Easter; and Jews celebrated their national holidays, such as Passover and Yom Kippur. "But we atheists," he said, "have no recognized national holidays. It's unfair discrimination."

His friend replied, "Why don't you celebrate April first?"

Perhaps we need to learn to pray again

... It could be argued that a major cause of many of the social, cultural and personal problems that plague the late 20th century are due to the declining influence of religion in many people's lives · The Constitution rightfully separates church from state, as institutions. However, the push to separate religion from society has aggravated innumerable social problems. And the separation of humanity from the divine through secular explanations for existence has brought emotional and psychological trauma to millions of people.

Could it be ... that the answer to humanity's prayer for health and justice is prayer?

A taxing situation

wish they came in that order."

Love bears all things

I sat once with an old Irish priest in his house. His faithful Irish setter was next to him, resting his head in the priest's lap. "Don't tell the bishop," said the priest, his eye twinkling. "But I expect I'll see old Red up there in heaven -- if I get there. As a matter of fact, I wouldn't be surprised to find more dogs than people in heaven. We Christians prate about forgiveness, and loyalty and love, while the dogs practice all of these qualities."

P.S. reference to Pres. Clinton's veto, Pope John Paul from the Vatican has also strongly condemned his action.

Quoted below are portions of a three page letter sent April 16th to President Clinton. It was signed by Bishop Pilla and all eight U.S.
Cardinals. We pray that Congress will "override this shameful veto" and urge you to write to members of the House and Senate to do so.

Dear President Clinton,

It is with deep sorrow and dismay that we respond to your April 10 veto of the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act.

Your veto of this bill is beyond comprehension for those who hold human life sacred. It will ensure the continued use of the most heinous act to kill a tiny infant just seconds from taking his or her first breath outside the womb.

At the veto ceremony you told the American people that you "had no choice but to veto the bill." Mr. President, you and you alone had the choice of whether or not to allow children almost completely born, to be killed brutally in partial-birth abortions. Members of both Houses of Congress made their choice. They said NO to partial-birth abortions. American women voters have made their choice ... 78 percent of women voters said NO to partial-birth abortions. Your choice was to say YES and to allow this killing more akin to infanticide than abortion to continue.

It was instructive that the veto ceremony included no physician able to explain how a women's physical health is protected by almost fully delivering her living child, and then killing that child in the most inhumane manner imaginable before completing the delivery. ... Dr. Warren Hern, who wrote the most widely used textbook on how to perform abortions, has said of partial-birth abortions: "I would dispute any statement that this is the safest procedure to use."

As Catholic bishops and as citizens of the United States, we strenuously oppose and condemn your veto of H.R. 1833 which will allow partial-birth abortions to continue

Mr. President, your action on this matter takes our nation to a critical turning point in its treatment of helpless human beings inside and outside the womb. It moves our nation one step further toward acceptance of infanticide.
Combined with the two recent federal appeals court decisions seeking to legitimize assisted suicide, it sounds the alarm that public officials are moving our society ever more rapidly to embrace a culture of death.

Writing this response to you in unison is, on our part, virtually unprecedented. It will, we hope, underscore our resolve to be unremitting and unambiguous in our defense of human life. (read full text in entrances)

Easter is to our faith what water is to the ocean, what stone is to the mountain, what blood is to your body.

May, the month of Mothers' Day, First Communions, and the month of Mary, the Mother of God. Parents, this is a marvelous teachable moment to tell your little ones of Mary's love for her Son, and for all of God's children. Special prayers to Mary at bedtime, saying a decade of the Rosary, stories about the saints, had a special love for Mary such as St. Bernadette, St. Theresa, St. Kateri, or St. Juan Diego are all great ways to engender a lively love for Mary.

This week we read the letter from Bishop Pilla initiating the 75th annual Catholic Charities Appeal. Some of you will be contacted by mail, others by phone, and those who are new to the area may use the envelopes provided at the bulletin stands. We thank you for your generosity.

LISTEN TO YOUR CALLING

Since today is the 33rd World Day of Prayer for Vocations, it is appropriate to think about how God is calling us to live our lives. Trying to discover how we should live as Christians is not easy. But God does provide answers if we are willing to listen. Although God moves in subtle ways, in the end the final decision is up to us. We are free to choose. Open yourself up to God's will. Listen to the call.

Next weekend at all Masses the second collection will be for our mission outreach to Bishop Pelotte's diocese of Gallup.
He thanks you for your continued generosity.

A note of interest for those of you concerned about the Saint Patrick Manor housing project. At last week's meeting we agreed to apply this summer to HUD and this fall to the State for funding. Our application last year was a very strong one--we rated seventh of the more than fifteen who applied. The top four were funded.

A remembrance, please, for our sick: John Brasee at Fairview Park Hosp., Charlie Corriggio at Oberlin, Jim Feron and Ralph Frisina at home.

This bulletin has four animal motifs associated with Eastertime. The deer, peacock, pelican & phoenix are favorite Christian symbols that have been carved in the stonework of many churches. Psalm 42: "As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God." The peacock is a symbol of the resurrection.
Its spectacular plumage molts and then fresh feathers emerge.
Legend says a phoenix bird made a nest in a palm tree, it burst into flame, a red egg from the ashes hatched an even more splendid phoenix.

According to legend, the pelican feeds its young on its own blood, so the bird became an emblem of self-sacrifice.

May God bless & protect all our wonderful First Communicants!

We are delighted, honored, blessed to have these twenty-five Second Graders receive their Eucharistic Lord in the sacrament of Holy Communion this Sunday.

We congratulate them and their parents, and we thank you for the gift they are to us.

May their love for the Lord Jesus continue to grow through this wonderful sacrament.

How can you discern authentic devotion to God's Mother, Mary? Authentic devotion to Mary always leads you to her Son. It strengthens your love for the Church. It values the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist.
Are you becoming more loving, more peaceful through this particular devotion. In short, is God becoming more alive in your heart? If not, you are chasing feathers in the wind!

final early dismissal day this Wednesday, May 8th.

The things you cannot buy

The best and sweetest things in life are things you cannot buy,
The music of the birds at dawn, the rainbow in the sky;
The dazzling magic of the stars, the miracle of light;
The precious gifts of health and strength, of hearing,
speech and sight;
The peace of mind that crowds a busy life of work
well done;
A faith in God that deepens as you face the setting sun;
The boon of love, the joy of friendship as the years go by;
You find the greatest blessings are the things you cannot buy.

(Quote from Boston's Cardinal Bernard Law.) "In the eyes of God, each and every one of us is uniquely precious, and no human life is more disposable or less valuable than any other. This decision (legalizing assisted suicide) provides ample evidence that the abortion debate is not about 'when life begins' but about whether our society will hold human life to be cheap. This ruling paves and broadens the road to a complete culture of death."

EARTH CAMP, an experience of jun and nature for children ages 8--12 at Oberlin Country Day Camp on Baird Road. This camp is operated by the Humility of Mary Sisters and may be just right for your child. Check the flyers in the entranceways.

Follow the Way of Love. "To thrive, love requires attention, communication, and time... to share a story or confide a need, to play a game, to tell a joke, to watch and cheer on... time to be present to another's failure or success, confusion, despair or moment of decision.

Each generation of family is challenged to leave the world a more beautiful and beneficial place than it inherited. You can do this, for example, when you deliberately pass on your wisdom and the faith of the Church, providing counter-cultural messages about poverty, consumerism, sexuality and racial justice... to name a few." Bishops' Letter, 1993.

Parents, register your children for next year's religion classes this month at reduced rates!

The liturgical period of Ordinary Time which extends from Pentecost to the first Sunday of Advent, begins with two Sunday feasts, today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity and next week's Solemnity of the Body & Blood of Christ.

The various symbols of the Trinity seek to visualize this profound mystery of three Persons existing as one God! Read the facing side for more on this.

Next Sunday at the 8:30 a.m. Mass we will honor our graduating high school seniors. They are to meet in the Conference Room by 8:15 a.m. Following Mass, the Guild will serve them and their parents breakfast in our hall. Kindly confirm reservations with Mrs. Forgacs.

First Communion photos are here. Parents, kindly pick them up in the sacristy at your convenience.

Don't settle for a marriage that is just "average", take the time to make a Marriage Encounter Weekend and discover the "greatness" that is God's plan for your sacrament. Weekend dates are: July 26--28, Sept. 20--22, Oct. 18--20 & Nov. 15--17. Call 216-899-9002 for info or reservations.

Commencement is a beginning

It is of interest that the name given to graduation ceremonies is "commencement." This word signifies not an ending, but the "act of beginning." It refers to the beginning of the next phase of life, for which the educational process has prepared us. That new phase may be a full-time job, marriage, additional education or some combination of these, but whatever that next phase is, there is a real sense in which the end is also the beginning.

Hard choices

I've found the things of God are often very hard to do at the beginning, but they are very easy and peaceful in the end. While the wrong choices are so easy to make at the beginning, they end up so complicated and full of difficulties and regrets later.

Love makes a home

Due to my father's work, we moved frequently. I lived in 15 different places during the first 18 years of my life. Three consecutive Christmases were celebrated in three different states. Thus home came to be associated not with a house, but with the people who comprised my family, people whom I loved and who loved me. I think that's what God intended home to be.

Today we extend our sympathy and the prayerful support of our prayers to the family of JOHN BRASEE, 47, a life-long member of this parish who died Thursday after a long bout with cancer. Well known and much loved, John struggled heroically for years. A powerful example in his suffering. May he now be at peace with the Lord he so loved.

The class for ALTAR SERVERS is on Saturday morning at 10. It goes just one hour. New recruits, boys & girls, still welcome, age ten or entering the 4th grade.

Parents, don't forget to get your kids registered for P.S.R. for the '96-'97 school year at reduced fees until the end of June.

In our families, we receive what we haven't earned. That is the beauty of family life. We don't have to earn affection or care. It is freely given. Today we honor fathers who give so generously of themselves to their families. Pray with us for God's special blessings for our fathers so that they may be all God wants them to be.

Next weekend we will participate in the Peter's Pence Collection for the works of the Holy Father. Last fall he brought his mission to the United States and touched us all with his message of dignity, hope, and love. Through this collection we join the Holy Father in proclaiming the love of Christ by supporting his worldwide mission. Please pray for him and give generously to this special appeal.

My dad

When I was just a little boy
no more than just a lad,
I met a lot of special men but none quite like my dad.
Though other men would often hear the things I'd have to say, None could listen with their heart in Dad's very special way.
I love to think of all the things
he used to say and do,
And how I felt down in my heart
I want to be like you.
If I could be just half the man
my father was to me,
What a great example I would be for all the world to see.
The world would see a man who tried to never fail the test,
Who never faltered in his quest to always do his best.
They'd see a man who loved his God through times both good and bad,
What a man I'd be if I could live my life just like my dad.

SIGN VETO OVERRIDE POSTCARDS TODAY! The Catholic cardinals of our country told President Clinton, "Your veto [of the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act, HR 1833] is beyond comprehension for those who hold human life sacred. It will ensure the continued use of the most heinous act to kill a tiny infant just seconds from taking his or her first breath outside the womb." Today our parish will join with thousands of other parishes around the country in signing postcards urging Congress to override President Clinton's shameful veto of HR 1833. Thank you for speaking up on behalf of those who cannot speak for themselves!

When you get home, take your set of green postcards, place a 20¢ stamp on each and address the front of the top two to our Ohio Senators and the bottom one to your district representative.

We remember in our prayers Fr. John Minnich, 79, whose funeral Mass was Saturday at St. Joseph's in Avon Lake where he lived in retirement. Father was a good friend who helped out here several times in years past. May he and all our deceased be at peach with their Lord.

Yes, we are in need of helpers for the Parish School of Religion (P.S.R.) as teachers' aides at the lower levels and as teaching couples at the upper, Sunday morning) level. Kindly let me know or give the office a call if you can serve in some capacity. It is much appreciated and very rewarding.

We are also seeking one or two adults to help manage the Pizza Sub Booth at next month's County Fair, week of the 18th. You get a free pass and have the pleasure of meeting our very nicest parishioners!

Thanks to the 190 of you who took advantage of the lower P.S.R. rates to register for the September classes. It is a great help to us.

Saint Martin's in Valley City has their annual Chicken Bar-B-Que dinner this Sunday from noon to five. It is always great.

This weekend the second collection is for our parish outreach to the diocese of Gallup in New Mexico. Bishop Pelotte thanks you.

Next weekend, Fr. Mark Whelan, of the Holy Ghost Fathers, Province of Ireland, will give the homily at all Masses telling about their work in Third World countries, spreading the Gospel message. He will also accept a second collection.

Last Sunday at the Saint John Cathedral, five hundred couples celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary--a beautiful witness of the loving, enduring fidelity of these post-war couples. Bishop Pilla was extremely pleased with the response of these jubilarians.

BAPTISM CLASS this Sunday, July 14th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Conference Room for parents wanting their child baptised in the coming months.

Our collection after Communion will be for this work. Thanks for your continuing generosity. It is always appreciated.

Mass time for travelers.
No longer do you have to worry about Mass time at the Catholic Church nearest to you no matter where you are in the U.S.A. A computer system with a 800 phone line provides this free service all day, every day. You just need the zip code (or area code & exchange number) of the location and you will be given the church, address, times & distance.

Just dial 1-800-MASS TIMES.
It works, I tried it.

Should you be at the Midway Mall the week of July 22nd, take a few minutes to view POSTERS FROM THE PAST, the 75th anniversary display of Catholic Charities Appeal posters depicting changes in graphic arts.

The Fathers of St. Joseph are seeking pledges for a proposed new retreat center to be built on their 37 acre Avon, Ohio property. They have given retreats to several of our Confirmandi classes in the past years. A facility of this quality is badly needed in Lorain County. Check flyers in the entranceways for more info.

This past Wednesday, the envelope packets for August and September were mailed to 360 parishioners. Financial Council meeting this Wednesday, July 31st, 7:30 p.m., to review fiscal year report and Trust distributions.

New Life has developed a unique program of Senior In-Home Services which just might be of interest and value to many of us. Kindly check the flyers in the entranceways and give them a call for more info.

"A Teen Celebration of Life," an event of interest and enjoyment for our younger set. August 7th in Brooklyn. Check flyers in entranceways for more.

The Fair Posters tell us that this great county happening is less than a month away! And I still need a couple^{people} to help with managing our Pizza Sub booth. An hour or two a day is all it takes. A free fair pass goes with the task.

Would you like to help a good cause for Lorain County? The Fathers of St. Joseph hope to break ground soon on a Youth Retreat Center. This would be an ideal site for our Confirmation retreats. If you can assist this project with a donation, it would be most appreciated. Check the entranceways for more.

I am very pleased that over the coming weeks we will have ten new altar servers helping with the weekend liturgies. The faithfulness of these boys and girls coming in for many Saturdays to be of service to their parish is truly a grand, hopeful sign for us. I thank their parents for the good work they are doing.

We are still in need of two couples willing to help with the upper division classes this fall on Sunday morning. If interested, kindly see Tassa Dowdell or myself. The pay is rather skimpy (0) but the satisfaction is unmatched!

Parents, are your children registered for the Parish School of Religion (P.S.R.) classes which begin in September? The staff appreciates your taking care of this very soon as they get going with class rosters and room assignments right around Fair time. Stop at the office, or see one of us after Mass.

A reminder that next weekend is the second one of the month and time for the second collection we give to Bishop Pelotte's diocese of Gallup, New Mexico.

The recent issue of Guidepost, on page 45, if I recall rightly, has a note about the extreme poverty of this region.

Your sharing is truly appreciated.

In just two weeks our PIZZA SUB BOOTH will be in operation at the Lorain County Fair.

This means a grand opportunity to offer your gift of time helping at the booth and/or with the production line in our hall.

So please, time is short, take a moment today to signup for a spot on the schedule at the cardtable in the driveway. You save me much worry time by doing so now. Thanks.

Still seeking that kind person who will help for about an hour in the morning to get the booth stocked and up and running. I can't do it and Patrick would eat the subs so he's out too.

An update on the Saint Patrick Manor housing project. In two weeks our application will be resubmitted to the HUD office in Cleveland. Then it takes about a month to see if we have been funded. The need is real so say a prayer for a good review.

way for the Confirmandi to get in their church service hours.
Agrand "thank you" to Matt Tipple and dad, Bill, for fabricating the new steel frame and wheels for the booth. Moving it is now a breeze!
And a big bear hug for Cindy and Joe Storrow who answered my plea for booth man-

Tough love for your country

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke of love for his country even as he attempted to change its laws. "Whom you would change, you must first love," he said.
That's the kind of tough love Christians must have for their country: to love the land faithfully, but not at the expense of suspending moral judgment.

-Charles Colson

Appreciate your faith

One cannot be a good steward without having an appreciation for what one has been given. If we reflect on the struggles of those who have gone before us to make the faith available to us, we will be filled with gratitude for their committed efforts. We will want to learn more about our faith because we see the inherent value in it. And as we learn more about faith, we will grow in our appreciation of it and desire to share it with others.

-Sacred Heart Parish,
Oklahoma City, OK

Put love in the doing

To show great love for God and our neighbor we need not do great things. It is how much love we put in the doing that makes our offering something beautiful for God.

-Mother Teresa

Each Memorial Day, there is a 10 kilometer race in our neighborhood. Drawing competitors from all over Chicago, the hilly terrain provides challenge and fun.
Cheered by area residents, the athletes give the course their best effort. First come the serious runners, lean and muscular, eyes fixed firmly on the finish line.
Then, many paces behind, the local joggers who are more interested in a workout than in setting a speed record. Then, the grade-school kids in long T-shirts, struggling to reach the half-way mark. And, finally, the seniors, and parents pushing buggies, and dog owners with pets . . . All, whatever their position, keep looking ahead, toward their goal.

To be a Christian and not keep one's eyes fixed on Jesus is a contradiction in terms. To accept the gospel message while ignoring the example of Jesus' life does not make sense. If Jesus is the sacrament of God's presence, the sign of God's abundant love, then he is central to our life of faith. He leads, we follow.
He sets the pace, we try to keep up. In him, we find a model of holiness. In him, we find the strength and courage to continue the marathon.

Bishop at a loss for words!

At a banquet, a clumsy waiter dropped a plate of hot soup in the lap of the bishop. The pastor looked around in agony and exclaimed, "Will some layperson please say some appropriate words?"

The second sin

The first sin was eating the forbidden fruit. The second was making an excuse about it. This second sin, according to J. Ellsworth Kalas, "is even more dangerous than the first, because it prevents our recovering from the first. It is the sin of excuses – the unwillingness to admit that we are wrong and the refusal to see ourselves for what we are. Whatever our original sin may be, whether it is lying, adultery, cheating, temper, gluttony, drunkenness, gossip or murder, there is always hope for us. But when we become guilty of the second sin, the sin of excusing ourselves and being unwilling to face ourselves, we close the door against God and hope."

An honest prayer

Many of us need the prayer of the old saint who prayed, "Lord, keep me alive while I'm still living."

—Tal Bonham in Treasury of Clean Church Jokes

—John Bunyan

- True thinking always leads to thanking.

—J. Ellsworth Kalas

- My hardest task is to keep the Devil out of me while trying to get him out of others.

—Dr. Harold Smith

- O Lord, you have given me a mind, and you have given me a mouth. Help me keep the two connected.

In a letter to the parish from Senator Mike DeWine, he said: "in the event that we cannot respond to every person because of the volume (of cards received), I am writing to inform you and your parishioners that I will vote to override his veto. Your support, as well as that of your congregation, is essential to ending this deplorable practice."

“When the sense of God is lost, there is also a tendency to lose the sense of man, of his dignity and his life; in turn, the systematic violation of the moral law, especially in the serious matter of respect for human life and its dignity, produces a kind of progressive darkening of the capacity to discern God’s living and saving presence.”

HOW THE GOOD NEWS GETS AROUND

Kindly put your envelope in the regular collection.

Kindly return the pink sheet next week!

Next weekend being the second one of the month is time for our monthly gift to Bishop Pelotte's diocese in Gallup, New Mexico. He is extremely grateful for what we are able to share with him each month. And, may I add, so is your Pastor!

Next week I have arranged to spend a few days with Bishop Pelotte to see if there are some more ways in which we can develop our exchange program with them. Children wanting me to deliver letters or other items for their pen-pals should get them to me by next Sunday.

The Church dedicates this month of October to Mary with one of her favorite prayers, the Rosary. Could your family gather each evening to pray a Rosary or a portion of one in her honor?

In talking with the kids in Chapel this week I was surprised to find that many did not know this GUARDIAN ANGEL prayer. Parents, the kids love angels and do relate to them nicely. It is a grand morning and/or evening prayer for all of us.

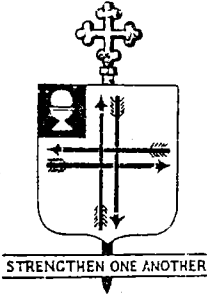

November 1st, All Saints Day, is the 50th anniversary of Pope John Paul II priestly ordination. The diocese wishes to send a collective spiritual bouquet to him. Since time is short, kindly take the pink sheet you'll receive today, mark on it the NUMBER of times you or your family will do one or some of the items indicated, and get it back to us next weekend. We will collect them at Mass.

Because of all the recent changes and increases in postal regulations and rates, our mailing of the bi-monthly envelope packets and the other bulk mailings will now be done by the envelope company. So, please notify us promptly of any change of address.

This weekend and the next, people will be moving along the aisles making the annual count of Mass attendance for the diocese.

BAPTISMAL Class for new and expecting parents wishing to have their child baptised in the coming months will be at 7:30 p.m., this Sunday, in the Conf. Room.

What's a Spiritual Bouquet? A collection of good works and prayers done with the intentions of a particular person in mind. The list the diocese will send reflects our love and respect for our Shepherd.

Kindly remember these, our seriously ill sick, in your prayers: at home, Harold (Gene) Hartman, Lyle Pierce, Jim Feron; Mike Yarosh at EMH, Jan Querin at Oberlin Hosp., Milt Wilhelm in Coudersport, Pa.

We also remember in our prayers and offer our sympathy to the family of Timmy Standen, 82, whose funeral Mass was Wednesday. Father Joseph Angelaitis, 92, one of our retired priests, died last Sunday at his home. May they and all our deceased be at peace with the Lord.

A reminder to ALL LADIES: the Ladies Guild October meeting will be held this Monday, the 14th, at 7:00 p.m., beginning with praying the Rosary in Chapel. The evening continues in the hall with desserts and coffee samplers. Baby sitting provided. The topics to be discussed are many: Christmas Bazaar...chile...confirmation...basket give away..."Secret Sister"...Christmas Dinner...etc. Hope to see you there. B.D.

Confirmandi: parents, you should be proud and pleased with your teens, most all were great in their interviews. Those missing their appointments can re-schedule at a time yet to be found near the end of the month.

A man of principles

An old Scottish guide was a devoutly religious man — and a lover of good hunting. On one occasion he returned from a shooting trip with the new minister and sank wearily into his chair.
“Here’s a cup o’ hot tea for ye,” said his devoted spouse.
“And is the new minister a good shot?”
The guide thought for a minute. It was strictly against his principles to speak a disparaging word about a man of the cloth. At length he made his response. “Aye, a fine shot he is — but ‘tis marvelous how the Lord protects the birds when he’s shooting!”

Three dimensions of parish mission:

1. We must pass on to our children the tradition we ourselves received about Jesus, the Messiah of God.
2. We must celebrate in worship how the risen Lord dwells among us and continues his merciful justice.
3. Each parish must be a collective servant minister providing pastoral service.

(from the Bishops task force on Parish Development)

Fishers of Men.

You ask me how I know his call,
His voice speaks not today;
His feet no longer walk the shores
Or hills or our highways.

Yet, I hear him in the seagulls' cry
As they soar serenely free.
I've heard him, too, in winds that flee,
Chasing breezes out to sea.

The waves repeat and echo,
 "I'll make you fishers of men."
 But I'm not ready or I forget
 Yes, sometimes fear to drop my net.

Yet, when I see the pelican
Plunge deep into the sea,
I sometimes feel the sea's my soul
Where Christ is meeting me.

“Come, follow me, be not afraid,”
His gentle urgings say,
And all I hear, and all I see Says, “Come now, don’t delay.”

He haunts me and he hunts me;
I see him everywhere,
In each sunrise, in each dawning
I see him even there.

The trees that wave their branches
Are beckoning to me.
The shores bear his firm footprints
To lead me purposefully.

Each sunset bears his signature,
The slipping sun's each ray Writes . . .

“With love, . . .

from God . . .

I love you much,
Come, follow in my way."

Our prayers for Msgr. Ken Saunders, 82, retired founding pastor of St. Bart's in Middleburg Hts, whose funeral was Wednesday. For many years he was secretary to the late Bp. Hoban, much loved and respected by all. May he and all our deceased rest in the Lord.

This weekend at all Masses, Father Dave Ireland, from Mt. Carmel parish in Wickliffe, will be with us to speak with us about the need to pray and work to foster vocations to continue the Good News. This is an area of spiritual growth very much open in our Parish.

This Wednesday & Thursday from 3 to 4 p.m. some items purchased in Gallup--Kachina figures, pottery, dream catchers, Kuni jewelry--may be purchased in the Conf. Rm. (parishioners only) with all profits for Bp. Pelotte's diocese.

Little ones in Church & Chapel: you all know how much I enjoy having all our children, regardless of size, in Church. I do mean this, the normal baby sounds I can easily handle. Should they become restless, walking along the back aisle is very calming. Please don't bring sharp items like metal cars which scratch the wood with you. Running about in chapel is a no-no.

In the Catholic tradition, citizenship is a virtue; participation in the political process is an obligation. We are not a sect fleeing the world, but a community of faith called to renew the earth.

This past Monday, Milt Wilhelm, who lived for many years across from Findley Park and ran the concession stand at the park, died in Monroeville. We pray for Milt and all our deceased especially during this month of November dedicated to the Poor Souls.

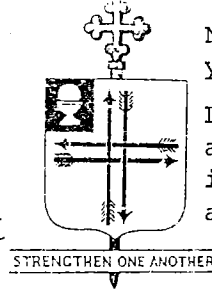

Thanks to the many of you who made out a spiritual bouquet for our Holy Father. Friday he celebrated his golden jubilee of priestly ordination. Bookmarkers commemoration this event are available on the bulletin stands.

We have received several legislative surveys designed to inform you of the candidates positions on major issues. Should you still be searching for information, kindly help yourself to a copy as you leave church today. It is our civic and moral duty to vote responsibly.

This FRIDAY our Guild Ladies sponsor their annual BAZAAR. This is their once-a-year fund raiser so please support them as fully as you can. Kindly check the attached letter for much more information on Friday's Bazaar.

Next Sunday St. Martin's in Valley City has their annual Ham Dinner & Turkey Raffle. Serving from noon to 4:00 p.m.

Dr. Francis McCafferty has recently opened an additional office at his Wellington home for the Practice of Psychiatry. I do highly recommend him.

Next weekend being the 2nd of this month we accept your gifts for the diocese of Gallup. Appreciated!

Last Thursday I spoke with Maureen Murray, the DRE at St. Clarence in North Olmsted. She had worked in the Gallup area for nearly ten years as teacher, as principal at St. Anthony School (the Kuni pueblo with the old mission church with the kachina paintings on the walls).

She is taking a group of 30 to Gallup for nine days during the Easter break--leaving Holy Thursday, returning the following Saturday. Round trip Cleveland--Albuquerque, N.M. is $220. Adults & teens interested please see me soon. Info nite at St. Clarence this Tues., 7 pm.

CONFIRMANDI--10th & 11th graders. This Sunday, beginning right after the 11:00 a.m. Mass (you should attend Mass before the retreat) you will gather in our hall with Mr & Mrs Jim Beers to prepare for the Confirmation Mass on the 17th. Lunch is provided. Concludes around 5:30 p.m. All parishioners are asked to pray for the spiritual success of this retreat.

October Mass Attendance Count: the total count for the first weekend was 637, for the second was 692. The average puts us up just a bit over last year. Even with the best of excuses, it does seem that a lot of our folks are not worshipping with us on a regular basis. Let's strive to make our community a real praying one since we teach best by our personal example.

Cornelius Ryan, the man who wrote A Bridge Too Far battled cancer for the last four and one half years of his life.
During that time he wrote,
"Each morning, for the past two or three years, that I've awakened, the first words that I've said are, 'Thank you, God, for the fine day.' It's not mattered if the weather has been bad or good. What's been important is that God has seen me through the night and given me another day to work and be with my family. I continue to thank God. He's allowed me to do what's important. I have received more than my share of blessings. I've been able to cram so much into my life. The most rewarding moments, the best writing, I think, I've done, the love I've had from my wife and children, and the joy I've taken in their accomplishments. They have all been realized in the years I had cancer — my longest night."

God's bonus days

An author writing in Guideposts magazine calls the nostalgic times of memory "God's bonus days." LaVerne Sexton recalled that in her family, life's unexpected dividends — like a summer rainbow, a glorious sunset, a warm spring thaw — were occasions for shedding mundane tasks for a special event. She remembers one sensationally beautiful day in her childhood when the incredibly blue vault of the sky seemed limitless. Her dad picked up the fishing poles and called, "Let's play hooky, hon. It's one of God's bonus days."

MY PURPOSE IN LIFE

God created me to do Him some definite service; He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission - I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.

I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good. I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place while not intending it - If I do but keep His Commandments.

Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him; in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him; if I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me - still He knows what He is about. Therefore I will trust Him.

PASTORAL COUNCIL meeting Monday, November 25th, at 7:00 p.m. in the Conference Room.

Next weekend you will see the Advent Wreath in the sanctuary marking the beginning of Advent and a new Liturgical Year. As a most useful help in making your Mass participation a more meaningful prayer, I strongly recommend your family using the booklet "At Home with the Word" which is available at our bulletin stands. It cost us $3, and that is what we are selling them to you. If you want a booklet, take one with you and get the $3 to us in the sacristy, at the office, or next week drop it in the collection marked for the scripture booklet. A little effort here pays great dividends!

Guild sponsored CHRISTMAS DINNER open to all our ladies! The Guild officers would love to see a large gathering of the ladies to celebrate the coming of the Messiah. Because the meal is being catered, reservations must be made now. So, please, after Mass today stop at the office to give your $5 reservation fee. The dinner is Monday, December 2nd, 6:30 p.m. Bazaar net profit -- $1,638. Thanks, everyone!

Church Calendars, courtesy of the Men's Club & Ladies' Guild, are available for all parish families, one calendar per family. Should you want an extra Catholic calendar , they are available courtesy of Catholic Cemeteries Assoc. Pick one up in the sacristy at your convenience. Those you did not get a daily meditation booklet for Advent may also get one in the sacristy.

We pause to give thanks this week and praise God for the many gifts we take for granted, most especially, the gifts we experience in everyday occurrences at home, at work, at school with family and friends. Lord, for all this we thank you!

THANKSGIVING COMMUNITY SERVICE, THIS SUNDAY, NOV. 24th,

in the Greek, thankfulness, gratitude. What

Thanksgiving Day!

but how you say it

A young woman, whose husband had entered the Navy, gave the pastor of her church a note as he was getting ready to give his sermon. The note said:

"John Burkett having gone to sea, his wife wishes the congregation would pray for his safety."

The minister read it in haste, however, and it was heard as:

"John Burkett, having gone to see his wife, wishes the congregation would pray for his safety."

Time is eternal

Every moment comes to you pregnant with a divine purpose, time being so precious that God deals it out only second by second. Once it leaves your hands and your power to do with it as you please, it plunges into eternity, to remain forever what you made of it.

A DAY OF PRAYER FOR WORLD PEACE & JUSTICE

A number of years ago, St. Pat's Pastoral Council decided to replace our former Eucharistic devotion with this twenty-four hour time of prayer in the Chapel before the Blessed Sacrament. This gives everyone an opportunity to pray privately for the gift of peace the Lord wishes to give our world.

December 7th is the anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

The day begins on Friday, December 6th, at 5:00 p.m., and goes through the night to conclude at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 7th.

Please find a time suitable for you and your family and sign one of the schedules in the entranceways.

If you can use an extra Catholic calendar, please feel free to take one from the chair in the entranceway. Also, some Advent Booklets are available at the bulletin stands, one per family, thank you.

I was hoping that more of you would take advantage of the scripture booklets, The Word At Home, to help you grow in your knowledge and love of God's inspired word. The effort you make will be well rewarded. The booklets are on the bulletin stands.

Trip to New Mexico. We have three adults and four teens set to go with with space for three more teens. It is a grand opportunity at a truly minimal cost. See your teacher or Fr. R. for more information or to add your name for the nine day trip.

The art of keeping Christmas

How can we best keep Christmas?
By sinking the shafts of our spirits deep beneath the sparkling tinsel of the surface of Christmas and renewing within us the radiance of the inner meaning of the season.
By following the Star on an inward journey to Bethlehem to stand again in awe and wonder before the babe in a manger.
By rediscovering the faith and simplicity of a little child, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
By being still and listening to the angels sing within our hearts.
By quietly evaluating our lives according to the Master's standards as set forth in the Sermon on the Mount.
By reaffirming the supremacy of the spirit in man's conquest of himself.
By rededicating ourselves to the Master's ideals of peace, brotherhood and good will....
By resolving to give ourselves away to others in love, joy and devotion.

Live in this moment

I was regretting the past and fearing the future.
Suddenly God was speaking:
"MY NAME IS 'I AM.'"
I waited, God continued:
"When you live in the past,
with its mistakes and regrets,
it is hard. I am not there.
MY NAME IS NOT 'I WAS.'
"When you live in the future, with its problems and fears,
it is hard. I am not there.
MY NAME IS NOT 'I WILL BE.'
"When you live in this moment, it is not hard. I am here.
MY NAME IS 'I AM.'"

Pastors with vision

Pastors who give their congregations only what they want are seldom able to lead them to new heights. If Moses had listened to the congregation and appeased them, the people of Israel would have returned to Egypt and bondage. A visionary pastor is one who is able to shake and rattle people for the cause of Christ.

On Christmas Day, the Lord called home two of our parishioners. Gene Hartman, 67, died at home after an illness of some months. His funeral Mass was Saturday morning. We extend to his wife, Theresa, and to his family the comfort and support of our prayers.

William Wangerien, 54, died unexpectedly while visiting his sister in Akron. Bill was single and was always one of the first ones in church for the 8:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. His funeral Mass is Monday, at 11:00 a.m. May Bill and Gene glory in the presence of the Lord Jesus.

Kindly keep our sick in your prayers: Mike Yarosh, awaiting surgery at EMH; Rev. Bill Buckeye is released from the Clinic and after a vacation will return for a complete checkup.

Our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to all of you for your participation in the Christmas liturgies, your gifts, and your very many beautiful cards. You are certainly a wonderful parish family.

"Journeying With Loss," a four session workshop sponsored by St. Joseph's in Amherst. Session one begins on Saturday, January 11th, at 3 p.m.. Kindly call Sr. Mary Ann at 988-2848 for information and to register. There is no charge & all welcome.

Yes, let's begin the New Eucharist:
Year right.

Yes, January
the first is a Holy Day,
the feast of Mary, Mother of God.

Yes, we begin the New Year under the patronage of Mary, the gentle woman who always guides her children to the Lord Jesus. See you at Mass!

A reminder, too, that the Christmas Season runs through this coming week to the feast of Epiphany and, then, concludes on the following weekend, the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. So please, don't rush the celebration and keep, if you can, your Christmas decorations up until Sunday, January the twelfth. Good celebrations, like great meals, should never be rushed!
