FATHER'S NOTES: An unexpected blessing -- the unwanted severe change in the weather from the almost summer-like warmth of Christmas to the icy cold of recent days. The weather prevents us removing all the decorations, forcing us to savor the Christmas spirit all this week till its conclusion on the Baptism of the Lord, next weekend's feast.

We are a people in too much of a hurry. Just as we savor a deliciously prepared meal, let us savor the powerful scripture selections of these days.

What's this feast of Epiphany teaching us? The Jews of Jesus' era looked forward to a Messiah king modeled on their memories of the great king David. Jesus thought otherwise. Today's feast carries this same message. Saint Paul spent his years preaching Jesus' universal gift of salvation. We find this all so easy and clear to understand. It was not so to the biblical people.

Let us follow our tremendously gifted Pope Francis in helping him proclaim this message today.

We congratulate Mike & Christine Toth whose three adopted children will receive the sacrament of Baptism next Saturday at 11:00 a.m.

Graciella Marie Josefina

Congratulations and Welcome, Gabriel, Melanie and Graciella !

The second collection next weekend will be for Glenmary Home Missioners.

Life Line Screening will be here at St. Patrick's on Tuesday, January 7th, to conduct their health screenings. See the flyers in the entranceways for details.

Celebrating Epiphany

Epiphany, from the Greek word epiphaneia, means an appearance or manifestation. Christians celebrate this festival each year on January 6, the 12th day after Christmas.

Epiphany marks the coming of the Magi, or wise men, to worship the baby Jesus. Because the Magi were Gentiles, Epiphany symbolizes the first recognition of Christ by non-Jews. It's a reminder that Christ came as the light — and Savior — of the whole world.

The traditional color for Epiphany is green, indicating life, growth, hope and eternity. Symbols for the season include a light, candle or star; a crown or three crowns; three gifts; and a globe. In the modern church, Epiphany has become a time to focus on reaching out and “showing” Jesus as the Savior of all people. It's also a reminder to engage in Christian community and to heal divisions among God's children.

Scrip. #787, THE LORD WILL BLESS HIS PEOPLE WITH PEACE.

Entrance: WOR II, #412, WHEN JOHN BAPTISED BY JORDAN'S RIVER
Offertory: G & P, #456, WADE IN THE WATER
Communion: G & P, #525, GIFT OF FINEST WHEAT
Closing: WOR II, #399, JOY TO THE WORLD

FATHER'S NOTES: With today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the season of Christmas draws to a dramatic close. Jesus, now a thirty year old adult, meets his cousin John at the river Jordan. He tells John to baptise him! John objects, saying the opposite should take place. Happily for us and for all mankind, Jesus insists.

As Jesus came out of the river, the voice of God the Father exclaimed, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." The first biblical proclamation of Jesus as He is, the Son of God. And since it was necessary for Jesus to be baptised, so is it for the rest of mankind.

The Church gives us baptism and all the other sacraments as opportunities for us to encounter God. What we do to prepare for them is important, still, we must always take note that it is God's initiative and action that is all important. Not what we do, but what God does. Just as He spoke of Jesus at the Jordan, so He comes to us in Confirmation, Penance, and especially the Holy Eucharist. Let us remember this as we now enter Ordinary Time.

The second collection today is for Glenmary Home Missioners.

Family Mass is next weekend.

Fruit/Cookie trays: The fruit and cookie trays distributed to the nursing home residents and shut-ins will be assembled in the hall Wednesday, January 22nd, after the 9:00 a.m. Mass. If you have about an hour to volunteer, your help would be appreciated.

The laminated photo of Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II is still available for $1.00.

Fr. Reymann's reflections on today's scripture selections: Catholics and we can even say that all Christians today are enjoying a far greater exposure to biblical selections than at possibly any time in the history of the church. The Fathers at the Vatican council, now fifty years past, saw the urgency for this to happen. So in the very first document they wisely promoted our present liturgical system. The Sunday readings are in three cycles, A, B, and C. The daily readings in just two, one and two. This year we are reading cycle "A" on the Sundays and cycle "Two" for the weekdays.

As we experience these readings the careful follower may detect a certain repetition. Even so, it is hoped that this will promote a real love of God and a steady but constant growth in holiness shown in our concern for God's desire for peace and justice throughout the world.

So today as the scriptures once again reveal for us a bit more of the mystery of God we ask that we may also grow in our knowledge and love of Him.

Father's notes: As we seem to linger in the grips of this persistent cold spell, let me take you to what is today almost an island paradise in the Pacific, the island of Molokai. When Father Damian and Sister Marianne Cope arrived there to work with the Lepers literally dumped there by the health officials in Hawaii, it was considered as an island prison. No one wanted to be sent there.

Through the heroic efforts of these two tireless missionaries, order was restored among those forced to live there. Within a few short years all sorts of vegetables and fruit bearing trees were being raised. A few years later, Father Damian proudly mentioned in a homily that he too now shared their sickness from which he died. Sister continued her dedicated efforts for thirty-five years. Both are today canonized Saints. Sister's feast day was this past Thursday.

You and I may not be called to such heroic action as these two saints. But called we are. "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of Men". God calls us all to live the Gospel where we are, "bloom where you are planted". What does God ask of me as I journey through Life?

Father's notes: Years ago when I was a much younger priest I remember many of the retired old "timers" gently complaining how empty their days were and how they found so little to occupy their time. Now maybe when I get older I will experience what they were saying. Not so at this time. The days are flying along with much to occupy my time!

Ordinary time means that we just do the regular things. Like blessing throats in honor of St. Blaise, selling "subs" to be eaten during the big game, the young folks preparing for the next World Youth Day in Poland, and "family night" coming up at the Jones Road Metro Park.

This weekend our diocese celebrates their anniversary of being in El Salvador for fifty years. My brother, Padre Alberto, served with the Maryknoll Fathers a full forty years in that area. When at the urging of the Vatican Council American dioceses were motivated to help the church in Latin America, our Bishop asked Padre Alberto what he thought would be a suitable area for our mission outreach. Thus began our journey to El Salvador with recently deceased Fr. Denis St. Marie a member of the first group.

So we continue with "ordinary time." You and I just doing our regular stuff.!

Blessing of Throats - this weekend

*Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness:
in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.*

Father's notes: The extreme cold of recent weeks tends to have a chilling effect on everyone, pulling us into our own warm comfortable space, distant from the terribly cold outside. Today's scripture selections orientate us in a completely opposite posture -- away from self into the real world.

"You are the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world." God is calling us, urging us to give meaning (flavor) to our worldly journey while lighting the way. We know from the readings of recent weeks how we are called as were the apostles for this very task. And I suspect that many of us reply, as they did, that we are not prepared or equipped for the task.

St. Paul addresses this head on when he says in today's second reading "I came to you in weakness and fear and much trembling, and my message and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of wisdom, . . . so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God."

What we accomplish in our daily efforts is a sure sign of God working through our human limitations. Have faith. This is His world and we are His people!

Father's notes: In today's Gospel selection, Matthew takes twenty verses to spell out for the Jewish Christians of his day what Jesus meant by observing not only the "letter of the law," but more importantly, the spirit behind the letter.

The final verse in St. Paul's second reading spells out the value of following the revelation of God's Spirit.

Catholic Charities 2014 Annual Appeal

"In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry...Poverty calls us to sow hope."

- Pope Francis

Next weekend at all three Masses, we will take a few minutes of the homily time to fill out your 2014 annual appeal pledge. If you are not already giving to a similar charity, please consider our Diocesan Charities.

Closing: WOR II, #673, THIS DAY GOD GIVES ME (verses 2, 4)

We extend the support of our prayers and our heartfelt sympathy to the wife and family of THOMAS LOUGHREN who died this past Tuesday morning at New Life Hospice. Tom, who was a very gentle, loving person, was cared for at home for many months by his devoted wife of 46 years, Angela and adult children. His funeral Mass was Friday.

Last Friday, Father Harry Wince died at 97 years of age. He was, I believe, our oldest diocesan priest. Bishop Pevic celebrated his funeral liturgy Saturday. May this devoted pastor, along with Tom Loughren and all our beloved deceased, be at peace with the Risen Lord.

A grand "thank you" to Peggy Smith and her crew for the enjoyable evening last Sunday at the Jones Road Metro Park. Was nice seeing so many young families along with their neat children. Everyone sure enjoyed the picnic style food along with the always scrumptious freshly popped popcorn. Thanks again!

Father's notes: Yes, our generous supply of winter snow is melting away in the rain. The longer days are most welcomed - if they only didn't fly by so rapidly. One week from Wednesday we'll have our annual community ASH WEDNESDAY Service with the newly arrived Methodist Pastor giving the homily. Please plan now on being with us for this community service.

Kindly keep our second graders in your prayers. Sunday they'll be having a mini-retreat preparing for their First Holy Communion. This is a grand experience for these youngsters as they conclude the afternoon by making their first confession. Then the afternoon really concludes with a pot-luck supper in the hall. Thanks to all you wonderful helpers.

First Reconciliation and Retreat for our First Communicants and their Parents is this Sunday, February 23rd, at 2:30 p.m.

The movie, "Son of God," will be opening at area cinemas including Midway Mall-8 on February 28th. The film follows the life of Christ from the Nativity to his Ascension. It has been endorsed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and has been called "engaging and compelling" and "extraordinary" by church officials. This movie should be especially of interest during Lent.

JOURNEYING WITH LOSS is a four session workshop sponsored by Saint Joseph Parish in Amherst to provide information and support to those who have experienced the death of a loved one. Sessions are on Saturdays, March 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th, from 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. in the St. Joseph School Library. Parishioners' 2013 Contribution letters are still available after Mass or in the office.

Ecumenical Ash Wednesday Service

7:30 p.m. Wednesday at St. Patrick Church
Pastor Paul Wilson of the Methodist Church will give the homily.
All are encouraged to gather and begin the Lenten journey together.

Lenten Regulations

Fasting: Ages 18-59 fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, limiting themselves to one full meal and two smaller meals each day, with no snacking between meals.

Abstinence: Ages 14 and older abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Stations of the Cross, followed with Benediction and a short homily, will be on the Fridays of Lent at 7:30 p.m. starting March 14th - except for Good Friday. Plan to attend with your family.

Father's notes: Receiving ASHES this Wednesday marks us Catholics and all who see us as people entering this ever so badly needed penitential period we call Lent. I use the words "badly needed" because too many of us seem to have lost or given up on the entire concept of our individual need for penance or reconciliation or whatever you may wish to call the season of Lent.

When Pope Francis spoke his first words, "I am a sinner, please pray for me," the thousands hearing him to a person obliged in silent prayer.

Yes, we are all sinners. That's why Lent becomes a necessary preparation for the amazing Feast of Easter, Christ's Resurrection. Let's prepare well for the coming glorious Feast of Easter. Happy Lentening!

The second collection next weekend will be for Glenmary Home Missioners.

The Youth Group will be attending the movie, "Son of God, " when it comes to the Apollo Theater in Oberlin. The film follows the life of Christ from the Nativity to his Ascension. It has been endorsed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and should be of interest especially during Lent.

WORLD YOUTH DAY 2016 KRAKOW. Our Youth Directors, Paul & Laura Dowdell, were informed that the desired University Housing is going rapidly. To hold our spots, we are sending a $25 deposit for each of the thirty potential travelers. At the next meeting you are asked to bring in a commitment check for $25. This will be refunded should you decide otherwise. Your money from the hoagie sales will not go toward this deposit.

With Ash Wednesday approaching, please take a few minutes a day, maybe five minutes, and use The Word Among Us to grow closer to the Lord throughout Lent. Spending just a few minutes a day reading the "Lenten Journey to Freedom" booklet is one great way to prepare for Holy Week and Easter.

On the evening of Wednesday, March 12th, from 5-8 p.m. ALL of the churches of the Diocese of Cleveland will open their doors and offer the Sacrament of Penance. Those who have been away from the faith are welcome to attend.

Parishioners' 2013 Contribution letters are available after Mass or in the office.

A prayer for Ash Wednesday

O loving God, we come to the Holy season of Lent truly sorry for our sins that have often separated us from you. We confess that we need to repent of our offenses against you which we have committed by thought, word and deed.

We humbly pray for your mercy and forgiveness. We pray for a new quest for holiness on our part that we may become faithful and righteous servants of Christ. In his name, we pray.

Amen

Stations of the Cross, followed with Benediction and a short homily, will be on the Fridays of Lent at 7:30 p.m. starting March 14th - except for Good Friday. Plan to attend with your family.

Father's Notes: The three scripture selections for this first Sunday of Lent present us with a realistic view of our journey through life. We see sin entering our world with Eve submitting to the enticement of the Devil. St. Matthew's Gospel tells of the Lord Jesus three times, unlike Eve, resisting this Devil. Note that these temptations are all to some apparently desirable things such as food and power.

Every one of us will experience similar temptations. Lent provides us with the means, the graces to resist them as Jesus did.

On the next five Fridays at 7:30 p.m., we will walk the Stations of the Cross followed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This is a powerful way for us to experience the extent of the Lord's love for us as he underwent His Passion. Try to join us on these Fridays or make them at your convenience through the week.

A personal note: You know I'll be celebrating my 90th birthday the Sunday after Easter. Since Holy Week is no time to talk about such things, and since I understand how we like to wait until the last week to commit to celebrations, it would make it so much nicer for the folks doing the planning if those thinking about enjoying this celebration with me could make your dinner reservations in the coming week or so. Thanks for your understanding.

There was a nice group at church for the Ash Wednesday Ecumenical Service. We are pleased that the community has responded so well to this evening of prayer. The collection for Well-Help was $671.40. It is much appreciated.

The second collection today is for Glenmary Home Missioners.

His focus will be the core message of our faith, the Good News -- Jesus Christ is Lord! Sessions will be Sunday from 2 - 3:30 p.m. and Monday and Tuesday evening from 7:30 - 9 p.m. Child care will be available. The church is at 410 W. Lorain St. For more information, call 440-774-6791.

A prayer for Lent

O Lord, open my eyes that I may see more clearly the condition of my soul. If there is darkness, mean-spiritedness, egotistic pride ... or worse within, cleanse me from all unrighteousness.

Renew a right spirit within me and make me truly Christ-like in all my thoughts and actions. And when I begin to edge away from your will, please stir up my conscience until I am in harmony with you again.

In Christ's name. Amen.

Father's Notes: In my younger days I've done a good bit of traveling mostly in this country, Latin America and Europe. And harking back to my jaunt as a navigator, I always knew where I was going, more often than not, how to get there with interesting stops along the way. Not so with Abram.

The Lord told Abram "go forth from the land of your kinsfolk...to a land that I will show you." God then made several notable promises which would result from Abram's obedience. Then "Abram went as the Lord directed him."

The net result of Abram's story is that today we know this man, now known to us as Abraham, as a man of profound, firmly held faith. We even speak of him as the "Father of Faith."

Because the faith of Peter, James and John was not similar to Abram's, Jesus let them witness his Transfiguration atop a high mountain. Knowing what was soon to follow, Jesus sought to strengthen their weak faith. These apostles only fully understood the significance of this event after the miracle of Easter morning.

Now on this Second Sunday of Lent we are graced by hearing these marvelous biblical stories. May they also firm up our faith.

Prayer to St. Patrick, Missioner

Glorious St. Patrick, you turned the misfortunes of your youth into opportunities for mission among the very people who had enslaved you. Your love for the Blessed Trinity filled you with zeal for spreading the Gospel and inviting all to share in the love of Christ. Help us then, St. Patrick our patron, to overcome our pride and fear, and so focus on the love of Christ that our hearts can no longer contain our joy. May we too feel compelled to tell the whole world of the goodness of our God. Dear St. Patrick, help us to see that mission must first begin in our hearts and spread to our homes before it can transform our neighborhoods, our nation and our world into outposts of the Kingdom of God. Amen.

Father's Notes on today's scripture selections: St. John's account of Jesus meeting the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well is most special to me. Years ago as part of my three month stay in Rome the thirty priests in our sabbatical group made a ten day tour of the Holy Land. At every sacred spot one of us read the Gospel account of what happened there. At Jacob's well it was my turn to do the reading.

The well was protected by an open shed with an adjoining small yard lined with stone benches. A terribly stern looking man sat next to the well keeping us all in his watch. I asked another priest to read the Samaritan woman's dialogue while I did the narration. It was a truly wonderful experience. On this we all agreed.

An added experience was my wanting to find the actual depth of the well. Having taught physics for a number of years, I recalled the formula I needed:  $d = \frac{1}{2} a \times t^2$ . distance is the product of one half the acceleration of gravity times the time squared. So I carefully dropped a small stone down the well while a buddy checked the time of the fall. We figured the depth at around seventy feet. The gentleman watching us probably couldn't wait to tell his family about the strange group visiting that day. I thoroughly enjoyed it, and relive the experience with every reading of this powerful Gospel.

The Parish Directory! The long lost but certainly not forgotten latest parish directory is still on its way and with a lot of Irish luck we'll have it before Easter! The problem was multiple: both ours and the publisher. So a little more patience might do the trick! Thanks for your understanding.

Father's Notes: Again St. John's Gospel gives us a fitting Lenten reflection on the One we have been striving to know a bit better through this Lenten Season. Jesus is truly one of us: he grieves at the death of a close friend; and as he is the Son of God, He calls Lazarus from death to life.

This Gospel selection gives us many spiritual insights to pray over through these closing weeks of Lent. Let's take time each day to reflect on these spiritual gems!

Father's Notes: Easter Sunday, the Church's annual rekindling in us of the virtue of HOPE. The Lord Jesus, ever obedient to his heavenly Father, culminated his passion with the ultimate gift, his RESURRECTION. St. Paul said precisely because Christ rose from the dead, each of us can look forward to our own resurrection. Today, we thank God for this gift.

Christian Symbols

The lily that blooms around Easter is a symbol of Christ's resurrection because it rises from a seemingly lifeless bulb decaying in the ground.

It is also used as a symbol of Christ himself.

The lily, a symbol of purity, is often used to represent the Virgin Mary.

Reminder: There will be no PSR classes April 20th, 23rd, 24th, & 27th. Classes will resume on April 30th, May 1st & 4th.

A Prayer for Easter

Heavenly Father and God of mercy,
We no longer look for Jesus among the dead,
For He is alive and has become the Lord of Life.
From the waters of death You raise us with Him
And renew Your gift of life within us.
Increase in our minds and heart
The risen life we share with Christ
And help us to grow as Your people
Toward the fullness of eternal life with You.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Father's Notes: A marvelous stroke of good luck for our helping priest, Father Larry Tosco, who has to be in Rome this coming week on community business. He'll be able to join the thousands embraced by Bernini's Vatican Colonnades for the historic canonization of Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II. This is why Pope Francis couldn't join us for my 90th celebration. He sends his apology and blessings!

One grand "thank you" to so many of you for your prayers, cards, and many expressions of congratulations. Truly appreciated. You're forever in my prayers!

Father's Notes: We are most pleased to print the names of this year's FIRST COMMUNION CLASS. At fifteen members, they are one of our smaller classes, small, but are they ever enthusiastic. They are all great kids who love to sing. As we give them our warm congratulations, and gratitude to their parents for the wonderful parenting they are doing, we beg them to continue their great work, bringing them faithfully to weekly Mass. They want to foster their Eucharistic love of the Lord Jesus they are experiencing this Sunday.

A special word of appreciation to PSR teacher Mrs. Peggy Smith and her aide, son Nathaniel, who taught them so well for this most special day.

How unbelievably fast is this year going! In just over a week our PSR (Religious Education) year will have concluded with the annual steak Victory Dinner on the 19th. Again our Finance Council has approved the granting of Endowment Trust Scholarship Grants to PSR or Catholic School graduates who apply. The forms must be submitted by May 12th.

Now a most grateful word of appreciation to the many of you who helped in any way with the 90th year celebrations of the past weekend. Even Bishop Roger Gries warmly commented on what a grand celebration it was. I couldn't believe how smoothly everything rolled along. Would have liked time to gobble up more of Big Dog's scrumptious food, but this time people came first. The Lord is truly great, and so are all of you! Thank you!

Congratulations to our Communicants!

Father's Notes: Saint John concludes today's Gospel quoting Jesus as saying "I came that you might have life and have it more abundantly." To foster in each of us this "life," Jesus gives us leaders, the Gospel calls them shepherds, whose voice we, the sheep, recognize and happily follow. Today the Church calls these shepherds our priests. They preach to us, we hear them, we follow them.

Just as the faithful in Jesus' day needed competent leaders, good shepherds, so do today's laity. We need priests.

Saturday Bishop Lennon ordained six deacons to the priesthood for the diocese of Cleveland. We are grateful for these new priests, but the needs of the Church exceed this number. My ordination class alone lost three members this year.

Our parish for its long history has always enjoyed the presence of a priest. I find it a baffling mystery that we have never supplied from our many fine families a priestly vocation to the diocese. What can we do about this situation

WYD16 YOUTH PILGRIMS FOR HIRE!! The WYD youths are looking for work to earn money for WYD'16 in Poland. If anyone is interested in hiring one of the youth pilgrims for small chores, landscaping, painting, odd jobs, etc., please call Peggy Smith at 440-647-9056 to make arrangements.

Father's Notes: At last Thursday's noon Parish Financial Council meeting following a pizza lunch we talked over a number of important issues. One was the granting of scholarship funds to the fifteen high school graduates who have submitted applications. All will receive grants in various amounts depending on need and PSR attendance.

We discussed at length our roofing concerns for both church and rectory. Bids will be sought from contractors recommended by the council members. Our Bishop has several years ago given permission for this project. You will be kept informed on the roofing situation in the coming weeks.

Your pastor has been kept busy this spring with parish activities, in particular the number of beautiful weddings. May they all have many, many eventful years together, a life-long relationship. All for their good, and the need of Church and society.

Almost daily we read of Pope Francis calling us to a growing, loving relationship with the Lord Jesus. May we all continue to listen to him, and earnestly follow his bidding.

Father's Notes: Over the past six weeks the Gospel selections have presented us with distinct appearances of the Resurrected Jesus. He wanted those seeing him to recognize him as the same man they previously got to know and love but is now a Resurrected Jesus, unlike anyone they have ever known. He wishes to prepare them and us for his coming Ascension, his return to the loving Father. A new active phase is about to begin for the community, the Church, he spent three years forming.

In the coming weeks we will celebrate this Ascension, then on Pentecost the granting of the Holy Spirit to inform, guide and empower that infant Church as has been done in the past and continues through the present.

We are blest in having such a divine presence with us.

This weekend as we rejoice in this Divine Presence we likewise express our gratitude for the many who have served this U.S.A. since our founding. May God continue them and all of us in his blessings.

Father's Notes: The ASCENSION of the Lord Jesus. Now having completed the mission given him by God the Father, in the presence of his disciples, Jesus is taken into the heavens. Picture yourself standing there watching this ascent into the heavens. Little wonder they just stood there gazing into the sky.

An angel draws them back to reality saying directly there is work to be done, let's get with it.

Jesus not only prepared them well for the task ahead, he has promised the advent of the Holy Spirit, who will teach them all they have yet to know. Further, he has promised to remain with them until the end of time. Thus began the Church which has survived throughout these twenty centuries. And today is enjoying an amazing revitalization with the shepherding of Pope Francis.

Last Saturday, Fr. Francis Mulvanity, 81, who was in residence at the Little Sisters of the Poor, went home to the Lord. His funeral Mass will be Tuesday in Willoughby.

We also had funeral Masses for two of our parishioners this past week. Katherine Marley, 72, had been living in Oberlin and Amherst these past few years.

Friday was the funeral of Adelbert Weber, 80. These past many years Adelbert operated the Weber Nursing Home here in Wellington. He took exceptionally fine care of their residents who had developmental illnesses. In recent years he built three beautiful homes for them all on Weber's Court. Adelbert's funeral Mass was on Friday.

May these and all our beloved deceased be now in the company of our Resurrected Lord.

Congratulations to the young members of our congregation who are graduating! No doubt they look forward to the next phase of their lives with excitement, anticipation and perhaps a little apprehension. We hope these words, adapted from Phillips Brooks, will serve graduates well as they embark on their journeys:

"Do not pray for an easy life; pray to be a stronger person. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers but for powers equal to your tasks. Then the doing of your work shall be no miracle, but you will be the miracle. Every day you shall wonder at yourself and the richness of life which has come to you by the grace of God."

This weekend the Church celebrates God's GIFT of the HOLY SPIRIT. God the Father and God the Son continuing their mission in and among us through the remarkable life-giving Holy Spirit. Through the anointing in Confirmation, we individually have been blessed with this very Spirit. It is alive through the GIFTS it bestows. And the gifts become real through what scripture calls the FRUITS of the Holy Spirit. These Gifts and Fruits are listed below:

GIFTS			FRUITS
Knowledge	Fortitude - Courage	Charity	Generosity	Joy	Gentleness
Understanding	Reverence - Awe	Peace	Faithfulness	Patience	Modesty
Counsel	Piety	Kindness	Self-Control	Goodness	Chastity

Father's Notes: As it is so beautifully and fittingly signified in this day's liturgy we are celebrating the feast of PENTECOST. Called by many the "birthday" of the Church.

In a related sense it is my priestly birthday too. Fifty six years ago, on this Saturday, Bishop Edward Hoban ordained my class to the priesthood.

Another even more significant event occurred in the fall of that year. As my close friend Father Paul J. Hallinan was being consecrated a bishop in St. John's Cathedral, we heard the news that a new pope was elected in Rome. His name was to be John XXIII. Supposedly just an "interim" Pope, he was an elderly man at that time, he called for a new Pentecost for our Church by his call for a "new life," an aggiornamento, opening the windows of the Church. A call for a Vatican Council II.

This all reminds me of what we are experiencing now with Pope Francis. Again, the whole world is talking about the Church. It is another Pentecost!

The second collection today is for Glenmary Home Missioners.

The WYD pilgrims will be participating in the Village-Wide yard sales this Friday and Saturday, June 13th & 14th. They are accepting donations of gently used items. Father's Notes: Today's feast of the Most Holy Trinity speaks to us of a multitude of things. Primarily it refers to God, to ourselves, to our community, and most especially of how all this is inter-related -- God, us and community.

For a moment, just reflect on the nature of God. Try to express your thoughts. Tell a non-believer about this God.

A story is told that St. Augustine who walking along the Mediterranean Sea shore contemplating the Trinity met a youngster taking buckets of water from this vast lake, dumping them into a little opening he made in the sand, and watched the water rapidly filter back into the sea. The lad asked him what he was thinking about. When told he was reflecting on the Trinity, the lad responded that his attempt to empty the sea into a little sand puddle was just as futile as Augustine's attempt to understand the Trinity.

God is certainly a mystery. Still, we humans are always seeking understanding of mysteries.

Moses speaks of God as "merciful and gracious, ...rich in kindness and fidelity."

Paul writes of him as "the God of love and peace."

And the apostle whom Jesus loved says in today's Gospel that "Jesus so loved the world (that includes us) that he gave his only Son." Love provides us with the best insight into the mystery of this "most Holy Trinity."

Three Interwoven Circles

Each circle in this symbol represents one of the Persons of the Holy Trinity – the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The circles, having no beginning and no end, signify the Trinity's eternal nature. The circles' interlacing symbolizes unity. In the center is a triangle, an ancient symbol of the Trinity.

Father's Notes: In today's Gospel selection we hear Jesus saying very directly and urgently, that unless we eat of his flesh and drink of his blood we will not have life in us. For us Catholics this quote substantiates Christ's gift of the Eucharist.

When Jesus first uttered these words many of the bystanding said how can we accept such a teaching, and then walked away. The Lord then said to Peter, "will you also go away." Peter responded as I would hope all of us would, saying "Lord, to whom shall we go. You alone have the words of eternal life."

Yes, the Eucharist tops all of the mysteries we have spoken about recently. Like the first audience, we do not understand it, we accept it, believe it, Jesus solemnly proclaimed it to be so. Yes, Lord, I too like Peter believe and will not walk away.

Thursday we celebrated the funeral Mass of John J. Hoff, who until a few years ago lived in the beautiful home just south of the Methodist Church. Because of declining health, he and Sandra relocated in Amherst. John loved the Wellington community. He was active in many civic groups frequently driving the Senior Citizen Bus. He loved everyone and was much loved in return.

Father Paul Krajnik, 92, a retired Senior Priest died Monday. He was ordained in 1950 in Rome and served most of this priestly years as Pastor of SS Cyril and Methodius Parish in Lorain. May Father Krajnik and all our beloved deceased be at peace with the Risen Lord.

Saturday Dan Buttler planted an absolutely beautiful four foot "Baby Blue" blue spruce in our north yard just outside my kitchen window. It is replacing a tree that did not make it through last winter. Dan has given us many other trees over the past years and all are doing very nicely. Guess the "holy water" does help!

Father's Notes: If you ever wonder about the leaders Jesus chose for his infant Church, today's scripture selections present us with firm, resounding answers. Walking along the Sea of Tiberius Jesus commanded the fisherman Peter "to come and follow me." Years later Jesus, now risen from the tomb, saw a devout, zealous rabbi named Saul enroute to seize some recent converts of the apostles. We know how this meeting changed Saul into the dynamic apostle we now call Paul. Peter became our first pope. Living in Rome, he was martyred a few years later. Paul became a prisoner of the Jewish authorities in Jerusalem. Sent to Rome, he too died a martyr.

This new church was well founded and remains so through the centuries.

The frequent rains of the past few weeks have certainly kept our flowers most happy. Already the first of a hundred or more day lilies have started blooming. As they hit full bloom, take a few minutes to enjoy the delightful variety of colorful blooms. God is Good!

Will very shortly be ordering supplies to make the 3500 subs for our Fair Booth. Time to start thinking about helping out there or at the production shop in our hall.

The WYD 16 PILGRIMS have been very busy lately. Many thanks go out to those who have been supporting the fundraisers. The pilgrims held two car washes and a Yard Sale so far, and they made a little over $200.00 at each event.

Several pilgrims have also been earning money by doing odd jobs for several of our parishioners. A BIG thank-you to Pat Straub, Joe Forgacs, Margaret Frisina & Teresa Garn for hiring the youth and also the Twining family for allowing us to hold our yard sale in their front yard.

Anyone who would like to hire a pilgrim to do work, please call Peggy Smith at 440-647-9056.

Father's Notes: A little reflection on the FREEDOM you and I enjoy as Catholic Christians living here in the neat Village of Wellington.

I know that what I say here is not true of many other areas, some not too far away.

A week ago my ordination class, all six of us, after enjoying a fine catered dinner at St. Patrick rectory (on Bridge Avenue) spent a few hours touring the West Side. Then we relaxed with a two hour river tour on the Goodtime III.

It was an interesting afternoon. I saw a portion of the West Side I've never seen. And relaxed with the comfortable hours on our now beautiful lake frontage. Years ago it was not like it is now.

Except for the very heavy rains on a short section of the ride back home it was a most interesting, informative afternoon. Secure with my always friendly dog Pat, we took time in the chapel to thank God for the experience. How nice and comfortable I live compared to so many others. What a grand freedom I enjoy.

Thank you to the many parents who have registered their youngsters for our Parish Religious Classes. We appreciate your cooperation. The late registration fee is $40.00 per child.

The second collection next weekend will be for Glenmary Home Missioners.

The change of the date for the sacrament of Confirmation.

This was not done hastily. We had hoped that my good friend Bishop Pevac would be our celebrant. Unfortunately, he has been having some health concerns, not serious, but not as good as he would like. So after contacting the diocesan liturgical office we found that Bishop Lennon enjoyed his last visit with us two years ago and would like a return visit. Hence, the change in date and time to meet his schedule.

So the date now is the Sunday before Thanksgiving, November 23rd, at 3:30 p.m.

PSR NOTES: We are looking for a team teacher/aide for grade 4. We also need an aide for grade 5 and a babysitter on Sunday mornings. If you are interested, please call the Church office at 647-4375.

The WYD 16 PILGRIMS are doing odd jobs for parishioners to raise money to attend World Youth Day 2016 in Poland. Anyone who would like to hire a pilgrim to do work, please call Peggy Smith at 440-647-9056.

The FEST 2014 is on Sunday, August 3rd. A fun day for the entire family! Christian artists include Third Day, Colton Dixon, Mandisa, and For King & Country. The day ends with an outdoor Mass at 8 pm followed by an incredible American Fireworks display. Check it out online at: www.theFEST.us.

Grace is a Gift

When we work an eight-hour day and receive eight hour's pay for our efforts, that is a WAGE.

When we compete with an opponent and receive a trophy for our superior performance, that is a PRIZE.

When we receive something in recognition for our service or achievement, that is an AWARD.

But when we can earn no wage, can win no prize and deserve no award -- yet we receive such a gift -- that is unmerited favor. That is undeserved kindness. That is GRACE.

Father's Notes: Looking back on my years serving here as pastor, and more so of the eighteen years at the seminary striving to gift my students with a love of mathematics and the physical sciences, I reflect on the multitude of scripture selections portraying Jesus as an exceptionally gifted, skilled teacher. He perfectly understood his subject matter. And just to mention the obvious he had a distinct advantage in knowing the mental capacity of his hearers. Every last one of them.

Yes, no question about it. Jesus was certainly a great teacher. He told marvelous stories. Stories always having a simple, obvious meaning. Stories on further reading carrying a deeper more profound theology for our further reflection.

So it is with today's gospel selection. Seeds planted on soils of various nurturing capacities. What is our capacity for producing fitting things from the seeds God has planted in us?

Wednesday at 3:00 p.m. we will celebrate the funeral Mass for Mary B. Hartmann, 92. Mary died at the Elms nursing home which she and her husband, Dr. Harry, founded in the early 1960s. Mary's life followed almost to the letter the life of Mary made noteworthy in the Sound of Music.

Always active in the community and the parish, she opened their country home for a number of youth retreats. Proud of her Irish heritage, her humorous stories were and are often retold. May this wonderful gift to all of us now be at peace with the Lord she so ardently loved and served.

Father's Notes: I keep thinking about the old saying I've often heard that as one grows older you slow down, take things easier, and even enjoy life much more. The first trait is eminently true for me. If I slowed down any more I'll be stopped or in reverse.

These seem to be terribly full, busy days. Lots of things happening in the area and parish. Tom Keller's Tree Tenders cleared our many of the dead ash trees -- lots of logs available for those having wood burners. Our Finance Council is in the process of selecting contractors to re-roof both the Church and the rectory. A major project already approved by the diocese. You'll be kept informed as progress is being made.

And two of our senior ladies had funeral Masses this past week. Last week's bulletin had a nice account of Mary Hartmann's death at 92. Then the day after her funeral we celebrated Mass for Mary Lemieux who was married 72 years to her husband Ralph. They lived on C.R. 40, near Nova (where they attended Mass) until they joined here some years ago. A truly delightful couple, it was a joy having them participate, always in the front row. Both these Marys had a contagious sense of humor and readily showed it. May they now be at peace with the Lord they served so well.

The WYD'16 pilgrims will be participating in the Rochester Village Yard Sale, July 31st-August 2nd. Their sale will be set up at Paul & Laura Dowdell's house, 156 Griggs Road. ## The garden of the soul

There is a Garden of the Soul,
Where God plants loving seeds
That faith and grace will nourish
Into blooms of loving deeds.

Within this Garden of the Soul
Fruits of the Spirit grow;
And they produce new seeds of love
Which you and I can sow.

Father's Notes: Please pray for our sick, especially Joanne Farr at University Hospital.

Our church and rectory roofing. Over the past few months it has become increasingly obvious to anyone looking even casually at our roofing condition that it is in need of major fixing. Everyone we have consulted on a desired solution has stressed that a metal roofing rather than another asphalt is the way to go. It is more expensive but definitely longer lasting, durable, and attractive in appearance.

The Finance Council is leaning in that direction. Not plain, straight sheeting such as on the fire station's new roofing, but rather metal with some shingle-like texture that even resembles the present roofing. We have several designs to choose from. The definite choice will be made at the upcoming finance meeting.

This will be an expensive project. I suspect some fund drive will be in order so that we do not entirely deplete our parish savings. This will also be discussed at the next finance meeting. Kindly keep our roofing project in your prayers. We have a beautifully designed church, and we will make every effort to continue it that way for the future members.

This past week we received a check from Rooted in Faith for $3798. This brings our total to $45,069.

The Financial Council meeting to discuss the roofing project scheduled for Monday, July 28th, has been changed to Monday, August 4th, at 12 Noon.

Father's Notes: This past Thursday we celebrated the funeral Mass for ANTHONY "TONY" BRATTOLI, 86, who died peacefully Monday. Tony was a exceptionally loving person. Much loved not only by his family and by everyone so fortunate to know him. He particularly enjoyed solving world problems with his friends at the Village Market dining area.

May Tony and all our beloved deceased be at peace with the Risen Lord.

Isn't there some neat saying about summer time being that period of one's life when it is enjoyed more fully and you just sit back letting the world pass by. I'm still waiting for all this to happen. The past few weeks I've found terribly demanding of my time. I'm always willing to help where I possibly can, but I find myself more and more pleased when I have folks taking responsibility for activities and projects.

August means FAIR time is rapidly approaching. Already many of you have taken slots for our Pizza Sub Booth. If you can help us we need two adults working each shift. And we will need lots of helpers to make them in our hall kitchen. The sign-up sheet is at the East entrance or, if weather permits, along the driveway. Your help is much appreciated. Many thanks.

The Financial Council meets this Monday, August 4th, at 12 Noon to discuss the roofing project.

The Youth Group will be attending "The FEST" this weekend. They will meet in the church parking lot at NOON on Sunday (August 3rd). A PRAYER FOR THE DAY

Lord, give me the patience to see this day through.
In joy and in sorrow to seek after You.
Teach me to trust in Your loving Son,
From the time this day starts until the moment it's done.
Teach me not to murmur, complain or to strive,
Because only through You am I truly alive.
Sometimes it's not until I wander or stray,
That I realize it's near You I always must stay.
So teach me to love You and always be true,
From the time this day starts until the moment it's through.

Father's Notes: Aren't the hardy amaryllis now blooming throughout the gardens just spectacular. They are all offshoots from the few bulbs I brought with me from the seminary years ago. If you would like a few bulbs, remind me in the fall when I will thin some of the plants.

Like Elijah and Peter in today's readings don't we all at times get very weary and discouraged and feel like crying out "Lord, save me!" Elijah was fleeing from the wrath of Jezebel, Peter fearful of drowning. God reached out to protect both. Just as he wishes to do for each of us as we journey through life. We only have to cry out to him!

Father's Notes: After considering the reroofing project of our church and rectory over the past several years, our Finance Council is pleased to announce that a contract has been awarded to Weathertight Construction, Inc. of Lagrange to install a 29 ga. steel shingle on both the church and rectory. A sample of the material to be used, similar in color and texture to the existing roofing may be seen in the east entranceway.

The cost of the total project, $187,575, will be completely covered by our parish savings, thanks to your generosity over the past years. Thus, no special collection will be necessary. Since the shingles are being made especially for this project, it will take four or five weeks until you see any action.

Another bit of good news! With a delay of almost a year our latest parish directories have made their appearance. I think they are well worth the wait. Special thanks to Peggy Smith for the final editing. You may pick up your copy after mass outside the east entranceway. Extra copies are $10 each.

Today we welcome Father Barry Bercier of the Assumptionists missionaries to speak with us about the work of his community. A second collection will be taken for the support of their outreach.

One big "thank you" to the many of you who have supported our Pizza Sub operation through the past week. Next week's bulletin will have the stats for your info.

Father's Notes: Once again we are pleased to give you the stats on our 2014 Pizza Sub Fair Booth operation. Our net profit was $10,022.30. A figure consistent with that of the past few years. This year we sold 3503 subs, 171 cases of pop, and 30 cases of water. We were pleased to keep our prices the same over the past several years so we could attract more families to our stand.

I am especially pleased that again Ken & Kathy Koubek have supervised the Booth operation and Dick & Erma Donahue managed the sub production. Without saying, none of this could have happened so beautifully without the donation of time and effort by the dozens of you who graciously helped in the hall and/or at the Fair. May the Lord bless you all!

A number of folks have expressed interest for an adult convert class. So if you are interested in such a class we will have our first meeting this coming Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Should that time or day not be suitable for you, kindly give Fr. R. a call. Such a class would be open to anyone interested in the Catholic faith tradition or just wanting to take a bit of a refresher in what you already know and believe.

When Jesus showed his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem "and suffer greatly... be killed and on the third day be raised," Peter rebuked him saying "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."

The reality of his Master, Jesus, suffering was foreign to Peter just as the notion of each of us suffering in life's journey is a reality the we would be most pleased to avoid.

To an authentic follower of Jesus we all must deny ourselves, take up our crosses and follow Him. "Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

A Prayer for Students

Dear Jesus, thank You for the gift of summer and now thank You for the gift of school.

Be with me, please, as I begin this year with feelings of excitement and anticipation.

I know that if You walk with me, I'll be okay, and with Your help, I'll be able to do my best each day. Bless my classmates, my teachers and all my lessons, too.

Bless me, dear Jesus, and open my mind and heart, that I might always learn from You. Amen.

Father's Notes: ADULT CONVERT CLASS: At our first meeting this past Wednesday the group agreed that Monday at 7:00 p.m. would be a better time for all to meet. Thus, our next meeting will be this coming Monday, September 8th, at 7:00 p.m. in the rectory Conference Room. All interested adults are welcome to participate.

The first classes for the Parish Religion students went well this past week. Attendance is down from past years. If some parishioners have yet to register for any level from K through 12th grade, please do so this coming week. We want all kids from the parish to participate, particularly those who will be confirmed in November. If fees are a concern, please talk to Fr. R.

The new metal roofing for the church and rectory will get underway right around September 15th. Everything seems to be now in order for us to proceed. It should look really neat!

St. Pat's Parish has been featured in the quarterly report of the Catholic Community Foundation called "Strengthening Our Parishes." It's nice seeing something very positive about our parish. Take a few minutes to read the article now posted at the entranceways.

The second collection next weekend will be for Glenmary Home Missioners.

The Youth Group will be hosting their annual Cookout and Kickball game to start off the new school year. It will be held in the church parking lot next Sunday, September 14th, from 6-8 p.m. All youth in 7th grade and older are invited to attend.

Thursday PSR is in need of a couple of adults to join our team that walks our 1st thru 3rd grade students from Westwood Elementary to the Church on Thursday afternoons.

Less than 1 hour of your time, on a rotating schedule, is all that is needed each time!

If you are willing and able, please call Anne Linden at 647-2912 as soon as possible.

The WYD 16 PILGRIMS are available to do odd jobs for parishioners to raise money to attend World Youth Day 2016 in Poland. Anyone who would like to hire a pilgrim to do work, please call Peggy Smith at 440-647-9056.

Our Parish Directories are in. Pick up your copy if your photo was included in the directory.

St. Patrick's is hosting the Wellington Senior Luncheon this Wednesday, September 10th.

Lorain County Child Immunization Clinic will be held here on Tuesday, September 16th, from 4 - 6:30 p.m.

Journeying with Loss. Saint Joseph Parish in Amherst is sponsoring a four session bereavement workshop with the purpose of providing information and support to anyone who has experienced the pain and grief associated with the death of a loved one.

The workshop will be held on four consecutive Thursdays, October 2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd from 6 - 8 p.m. at the St. Joseph School Library, 75 Saint Joseph Dr., Amherst. For further information or to register, contact Deacon Don Jankowski at 988-2848, ext. 205.

There is no charge and everyone is welcome.

Father's Notes: One of the first requests Pope (now Saint) John the 23rd made at the first session of the Vatican Council was to ask every American Diocese to initiate a mission outreach to some Latin American country. I am pleased to say that my brother Padre Alberto who spent forty years serving in the mountainous area of Guatemala, recommended to Bishop Hoban that we initiate an outreach to the very poor country of El Salvador. Thus it was that fifty years ago our diocese sent its first mission team to Latin America. Next Sunday, September 21st, we observe this anniversary. Today's feast is properly named THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS. In my own spirituality I think this feast more as a MYSTERY of the Cross than as a celebration. Why did Jesus have to suffer such awful treatment. As he answered Sr. Catherine when she posed the same question "if there were a better way, don't you think I would have taken it?" To be authentic Christian, one must accept the cross, just as Jesus did. So it is that today we celebrate this tremendous feast of the EXALTATION OF THE CROSS.

Father's Notes: This Sunday we have goodles of prayers rising "like incense" to the presence of the Lord. Nine couples are making the Pre-Cana Day hosted in our Old Church by the team from St. Jude's in Elyria. And we will have members of the fall Confirmation class, 26 teens, participating in the afternoon retreat. NO Mass at the retreat which concludes around six p.m. with a delicious lasagna supper prepared by Tassa Dowdell.

Today's scripture selections all center on the unsurpassable generosity of God. Jesus' parable illustrates the absolutely amazing generosity of God -- no matter at what time of the day we decide to follow him, even coming at the last hour, it's still okay. You are always welcome!

Father's Notes: We received a letter this past week from the Rooted in Faith foundation suggesting that the parish send a note to folks who have not made a payment on their pledge in the past seven months. We are reluctant to do this. Our folks have been very generous in supporting our activities, i.e. the present roofing project, and we know that they will pay their pledges as they are able to do so. Hopefully you will not hear any more on this subject.

As is most evident, our re-roofing project is in full swing. The two layers of shingles are being removed exposing the one inch thick insulation material which is holding up very nicely and thus will not have to be replaced. The white material you now see is called a "peel & stick underlay." This material makes an excellent water-proof base for the long lasting metallic shingle. Say a prayer for the safety of the men working on this rather steep portion of our roofing.

PSR is in need of a snack person for Thursday afternoon. If available, please call Anne Linden, 647-2912.

Father's Notes: If we thought September would be a busy month with the beginning of a new school year and the start of our roofing project, we were right on target. A very fine group of kids at all levels of the PSR program with numbers down a bit from last year, but still quite good.

The roofing crew is moving along nicely. Still waiting for the metal sections to arrive from eastern Pennsylvania -- hopefully we'll see a shipment this coming week. When the metal sections arrive we will see a lot of progress. Keep praying for the safety of the crew clinging to our rather steep church roof.

This coming week the Cleveland priests will be at Sawmill Creek Resort near Huron, Ohio. Two distinguished theologians will attempt to keep us awake and learning for hours each day. That's the tough part of the week. The enjoyable part specially for me is getting caught up with priest friends I seldom have occasion to see. And the food is always great. Bishop Lennon and I are usually first in the breakfast line so we have a pleasant time chatting about all sorts of stuff.

More about all this in the coming bulletins.

Next Sunday, October 12th, Father Michael McCandless, Director of the Diocesan Vocational Office, will be here to celebrate the 8:30 a.m. Mass and to talk to the PSR Students.

Father's Notes: Every other year our Cleveland priests gather for a three day retreat such as we just experienced this past week at Sawmill Resort just a couple miles east of Huron. It is always three days of relaxation, grand meals, and best of all, renewing friendship with the 250 priests of our diocese. The input from the two visiting theologians was worth the effort of listening and absorbing good stuff. At the last Mass on Friday one of the concelebrating priests read the names of the 26 priests who have died since our last gathering. This was for many of us a real shocker, three of them were my classmates.

The scripture selections for today carry the same message heard over the past few weeks, the Lord Jesus came among us to effect our salvation -- He expects us to respond. ALL are called. Many come up with reasons -- usually rather poor ones, not to respond.

This is our challenge today. God is calling every one of us. We have reasons to say "YES."

Father Michael McCandless, Director of the Diocesan Vocational Office, is here to celebrate the 8:30 a.m. Mass and to talk to the PSR Students.
Welcome, Father McCandless.

"Look forward and be hopeful, look backward and be thankful, look down and be helpful, look up and be humble."

Father's Notes: Don't you often wish you had the sharpness and cleverness of mind that the Lord Jesus possessed in pulling the carpet out from under those who without sound reason sought to embarrass him by forcing a stupid response. His responses were truly masterful. "Whose image is on the coin?" Give him his due!

As one who spent many years teaching professionally I always enjoy seeing how Jesus responds to those vainly attempting to trip him up. He was always most understanding to his adversaries, without wasting time trying to argue with them. They readily felt the truth of his response and went away with much to think about. Don't argue with Jesus -- you will always lose!

We extend our sympathy and the support of our prayers to the husband and family of MARLENE SLOSIER, 65, whose funeral Mass will be at 10:30 a.m. Monday. She will be waked at the Dicken Funeral Home in Elyria on Sunday from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. and on Monday for one hour in our Chapel before the 10:30 a.m. funeral Mass.

Marlene was a very kind and caring person, much loved by all who were happy to know her. She particularly enjoyed helping at the Wellington Well-Help at the Methodist Church basement.

Father's Notes: This weekend the church introduces the month of November with two marvelous, grace-filled feast days, the celebration of ALL SAINTS DAY on Saturday, followed by the observation of ALLSOULS DAY on Sunday. Even those of us who have only been around for a few years have lasting memories of close friends, family included, whom the Lord Jesus has called to be with him, they have died. Is it presumptuous of us to think of them as being with the Lord, enjoying eternally the unimaginable bliss of heaven? I think not.

Just think for a moment, the countless close friends you have had who are now with God.

With but a few minutes of reflection dozens of people stand out in my mind -- good folks who have earnestly walked with the Lord on their life's journey. That's not playing God, it is just looking at one as the Lord Jesus does, or today we could well say like our present Pope, Pope Francis, does every day.

Certainly we admit that some, maybe many, had failings, that's why the church gives us our doctrine of purgatory. It is why you and I pray for our deceased, we can merit for them what they are no longer able to do.

At the 11:00 a.m Mass next Sunday, November 9th,
Aaron David Kerepesi, son of Brian & Christine,
will receive the sacrament of Baptism.
Congratulations and Welcome, Aaron.

Next Sunday, November 9th, Father Michael McCandless, Director of the Diocesan Vocational Office, will be here to talk to the PSR Students.

Father's Notes: Today's feast marks the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome on land owned by the Laterani family, by Pope Sylvester on the 9th of November in the year 324. It served as the episcopal seat of the Pope for nearly eleven centuries. The present structure dates to 1646. Beneath its high altar rest the remains of a small wooden table on which tradition has it that St. Peter celebrated Mass.

This basilica is considered "the mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world." For centuries all Romans were baptised there with fitting solemnity. The Lateran Basilica along with the Vatican, St. Mary Major and St. Paul's are called the four major churches of Rome.

This feast causes us to reflect on our own center of worship. Do we see it not only as the dwelling place of the Lord Jesus in the tabernacle but more importantly as the place where we gather seeing God present in his Word and his Sacrament.

Do we make an effort to be present a few minutes early , being ready to celebrate actively and fully in the beautiful community prayer ever Mass is? Let's make it our own basilica.

Friday we celebrated the funeral liturgy for JOSEPHINE PASADYN, 94. Jo and her husband Al raised their family on Main Street just a few doors from the Old Church. In their later years they frequently participated in the morning Mass. May they and all our beloved deceased be now enjoying the presence of the Risen Lord.

Dedication of St. John Lateran. Most Catholics think of St. Peter's as the pope's main church, but they are wrong. St. John Lateran is the pope's church, the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome where the Bishop of Rome presides.

The first basilica on the site was built in the fourth century when Constantine donated land he had received from the wealthy Lateran family. Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646.

The dedication of a church is a feast for all its parishioners. In a sense, St. John Lateran is the parish church of all Catholics, because it is the pope's cathedral. This church is the home of the people who are the Church.

Father's Notes: Today's Gospel selection has St. Matthew telling about Jesus' use of a parable of the proper use of one's talents. Used well they bring rewards, squandered they are lost. Over the past few weeks I have been having conversations with each of our confirmandis. Parents, I'm pleased to say this Confirmation class is an exceptional one. All great kids, well prepared, ready and anxious to receive the Bishop's anointing. I am pleased that we are able to offer this sacrament in the final years of high school. We know that this is a time when the teens are looking forward to their rapidly approaching adult years. They are wondering about many important things, college life and career choices. How will I continue growing in my relationship with the Lord Jesus? Confirmation truly "confirms" what they received years ago in baptism. Now they examine this relationship in a much more mature manner --- one that will follow them and serve them throughout their life. Watching them grow these past few years and especially seeing their approach to adulthood leaves me with a vibrant hope for the growth of our church. Confirmation imparts many gifts in those receiving this sacrament. These gifts will be shown in the fruits they produce.

Pope Francis has announced the Year of Consecrated Life to begin in November 2014, and we are all invited to participate. An evangelical focus will help us to realize "the beauty of following Christ" in various types of religious vocations. An opening liturgy will be celebrated with Bishop Richard Lennon at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, November 21st, at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in Cleveland.

Confirmation Practice will be next Saturday, November 22nd, at 10:00 a.m. Confirmandi and sponsors must be present. Confirmation is next Sunday, November 23rd, at 3:30 p.m. with Bishop Lennon.

Father's Notes: Since completing our extensive roofing project on Veterans Day, well before the adverse winter-like weather entrapped us, we have been the recipients of so many favorable comments. Everyone warmly approves the finished project.

Weathertight Construction Inc. of LaGrange, in addition to installing 160 squares of metal tiling, cleaned and re-caulked the lexan covering of the high church windows, placed new tiling on the bell tower, re-built and covered with a seamless rubber sheet the trouble-plagued east entrance flat roofing, re-finished the north hall exit covering, and replaced all the metal gutter guards. Possibly best of all, their many workers tolerated a closely observant pastor.

Now here is the grandest feature of this whole happening -- we were able to present Weathertight with a check for $189,925, the cost of the entire project. All this from our savings of the past many years. How grateful we rightfully should be. Thanks. Lord!

On Saturday, November 29th, we will celebrate the funeral liturgy for LOIS SHEFFIELD, 81, who died this past Monday, November 17th. She will be waked in chapel one hour before the Mass time of 10:30 a.m.

Through the Sacrament of Confirmation we receive the Gifts and Fruits of the Holy Spirit:

Father's Notes: I earnestly hope that many of us are finding time each week to reflect on the Advent scripture readings. They are well chosen for our meditations on the Advent themes. On this Second Sunday of Advent, the Prophet Isaiah, Saint Peter and Saint Mark present us with touching personal Advent themes. Finding time to reflect on them through the week can't help but to feed us with the spiritual meaning of the season. Adults as well as those of the younger set will find many verses to enrich their spiritual journey. I'd well appreciate it if we could all try finding time to do so this coming week. Okay, thanks for the effort.

CONVERT CLASS. Due to the 8:00 p.m. evening Mass for Mary's Immaculate Conception, the Monday convert class will be moved to Tuesday at 7:00 p.m., the usual time. Becky Burkhardt will join us to share her own faith journey.

Any family with children wishing to light the Advent candles, please see Fr. Reymann before Mass.

The second collection next weekend is for Glenmary Home Missioners.

Poinsettias

This shrub, native to Mexico, is at the heart of legend about a poor girl who wanted to bring Baby Jesus a gift one Christmas Eve. As she walked to church, she gathered a bouquet of weeds — which Jesus miraculously transformed into lovely red flowers. Thus the poinsettia (named for Joel Poinsett, the U.S. ambassador to Mexico who first brought the plant to America) is known in Mexico as la flor de la Nochebuena (flower of the Holy Night). The poinsettia is also an ideal Christmas symbol because its leaves turn red when deprived of sunlight and its flowers (the red inner buds) bloom in December.

Father's Notes: This third week of the Advent Season is a God-given time of personal preparation for our fitting celebration of the birthday of the Christ Child. We have ample time for getting "things" ready for the big feast. Now is the time we look at our inner self, how ready am I to properly observe this beautifully touching birth among us of the Virgin Mary's only Child?

This weekend we take a good look at our personal lives, how am I doing? Today we ask God to open our eyes so that we may see ourselves more honestly as God sees us. How am I doing? We ask God to open us to our personal and physical illnesses and shortcomings, to help us make amends for them, enabling us to better "make straight the path for the Lord Jesus." Our God is a good and loving person, always waiting for us to open the door to his heart. May a hearty "yes" to God be on our lips!

Converts please note - Class this week on Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. No class Christmas week.

Father's Notes: As the Church gathers this weekend to celebrate the fourth Sunday of the Advent Season, the Church of Cleveland comes together to mourn the loss of a beloved priest. Bishop A. Edward Pevec, 89, last Sunday afternoon unexpectedly died at the seminary. I have no hesitancy in calling Bishop Pevec the most loved and admired priest of our diocese. At priestly gatherings, we usually sat together. Everyone who came by greeted him and he called them by name. He never forgot a person a student or just an acquaintance he ever met.

A few short months ago the Lord also suddenly called home Bishop A. James Quinn. Another close friend of us priests and, like Bishop Pevec, a very gifted person. The Lord's ways are not always our ways. They present us with another mystery to contemplate.

Now we can earnestly thank God for the gifts both of these bishops were to our diocese. And pray to them for their help as we continue our earthly journey. May they and all our beloved deceased be at peace with the God they served so well.

The Christmas Play, "Guess Who's Coming for Christmas!" will be presented at the 5:00 pm Mass on Christmas Eve.

Father's Notes: The Sacred Scripture readings chosen for this Feast of the Holy Family exemplify in a marvelous way the saying I'm sure most of us have heard or even repeated frequently specially around these family oriented days which states simply and directly that "A FAMILY WHO PRAYS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER."

Abraham and Sarah, Simeon and Anna, Mary and Joseph, all beautifully illustrate its wonderful truth saying, "A FAMILY THAT PRAYS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER."

Abraham and Sarah way into their golden years believed that God would be faithful to his promise. Simeon and Anna, after holding with wondrous delight the new-born Jesus, spoke of His God-given mission. Mary and Joseph pondered the meaning of their words.

Maybe we could re-read these marvelous words of scripture during the coming week. Great for a New Year's Resolution!

The Convert Class will meet on Monday, December 29th, at 7:00 p.m.

A BLESSED NEW YEAR TO ALL!
